Civics and Citizenship Benilde García-Cabrero, Andrés Sandoval-Hernández, Ernesto Treviño-Villareal, Silvia Diazgranados Ferráns, María Guadalupe Pérez Martínez, 2017-08-24 The book is organized around four sections The first section is an introduction to the problem of defining the scope and foundations of the development of moral personality and social engagement in particular the development of civic and ethical attitudes and prosocial behavior The second section presents a comparative analysis of education policies in Mexico Chile and Colombia in particular the way the curricula of civic and citizenship education is designed and implemented The section also describes and analyzes the way this subject is taught in the classrooms of the primary secondary and high school levels in the three countries The third section includes the results of research projects in Civics and Citizenship Education conducted with different theoretical and methodological models of analysis This last section includes some of the best practices of Civic Education that have been developed in Mexico Colombia and Chile Influences of the IEA Civic and Citizenship Education Studies Barbara

Malak-Minkiewicz, Judith Torney-Purta, 2021-05-26 This open access book identifies the multiple ways that IEA s studies of civic and citizenship education have contributed to national and international educational discourse research policymaking and practice The IEA International Civic and Citizenship Education Study ICCS first conducted in 2009 was followed by a second cycle in 2016 The project was linked to the earlier IEA Civic Education Study CIVED 1999 2000 IEA s ICCS remains the only large scale international study dedicated to formal and informal civic and citizenship education in school It continues to make substantial contributions to understanding the nature of the acquired civic knowledge attitudes and participatory skills It also discusses in depth how a wide range of countries prepare their young people for citizenship in changing political social and economic circumstances The next cycle of ICCS is planned for 2022 In this book more than 20 national representatives and international scholars from Europe Latin America Asia and North America assess how the processes and findings of the 2009 and 2016 cycles of ICCS and CIVED 1999 2000 have been used to improve nations understanding of their students civic knowledge beliefs attitudes current civic related behaviors and intentions for future participation in a comparative context There are also chapters summarizing the secondary analysis of those studies results indicating their usefulness for educational improvement and reflecting on policy issues The analyses and reflections in this book provide timely insight into international educational discourse policy practice and research in an area of education that is becoming increasingly important for many societies The Kurdish Question Revisited Gareth Stansfield, Mohammed

Shareef, 2017-08-15 The Kurds once marginal in the study of the Middle East and secondary in its international relations have moved to centre stage in recent years The contributors to The Kurdish Question Revisited offer insights into how this once seemingly intractable immutable phenomenon is being transformed amid the new political realities of the Middle East
