Building Great Neighborhoods Carol L. Townsend, Laura Wisniewski, 2003 Main Street Renewal Roger L. Kemp, 2000 Towns and communities across America once revolved around their downtowns Here people shopped worked relaxed and worshipped Changing needs and developments however resulted in their abandonment Over the past decade citizens have begun to seek ways to rejuvenate their main streets While these efforts have experienced varying levels of success this handbook presents many of the more successful programs providing practical and proven how to insights for those communities seeking similar results for their downtowns The articles collected here provide an introduction to the downtown situation and its complex issues They illustrate techniques of organization and management describe the tools required for successful main street renewal and provide case studies of many successful programs from across the country This valuable tool for city planners business people and private citizens includes a bibliography and index
