Black Dog Summer:

Black Dog Summer Miranda Sherry, 2015-02-10 In this extraordinary debut novel reminiscent of The Lovely Bones and Little Bee a mother watches from the afterlife as her teenage daughter recovers amidst the startling dysfunction of her extended family A small bright thread of a story weaves out from the moment of my passing and seems to tether me to this place Perhaps this is why I have not left yet Perhaps I have no choice but to follow the story to its end Compulsively readable and stylistically stunning Black Dog Summer begins with a murder a farmstead massacre in the South African bush Thirty eight year old Sally is but one of the victims Her life brutally cut short she narrates from her vantage point in the afterlife and watches as her sister Adele her brother in law and unrequited love Liam her niece Bryony and her teenage daughter Gigi begin to make sense of the tragedy A suspenseful drama focusing on marriage and fidelity sisterhood and the fractious bond between mothers and daughters Black Dog Summer asks In the wake of tragedy where does all that dark energy linger The youngest characters Bryony and Gigi cousins who are now brought together after Sally's murder are forced into sharing a bedroom Bryony becomes confused and frightened by the violent energy stirred up and awakened by the massacre while Gigi is unable to see beyond her deep grief and guilt But they are not the only ones aware of the lurking darkness Next door lives Lesedi a reluctant witchdoctor who hides her mystical connection with the dead behind the facade of their affluent Johannesburg suburb As Gigi finally begins to emerge from her grief the fragile healing process is derailed when she receives some shattering news and in a mistaken effort to protect her cousin puts Bryony's life in imminent danger Now Sally must find a way to prevent her daughter from making a mistake that could destroy the lives of all who are left behind Gorgeously written with a pace that will leave readers breathless Black Dog Summer introduces a brilliant new voice in fiction
