Larson, James R. Krabill, 2021-10-06 For six decades North American Mennonites have walked alongside African Independent Churches AICs as they have navigated their faith journey between the ancient traditions of the ancestors and the newer claims of Christ upon their lives The story of these relationships is a fascinating pilgrimage in partnership offering hope for a mutuality that slips the knots of colonialism and testifies to the unifying power of the Holy Spirit Beginning with a historical overview by missiologist Wilbert R Shenk this volume contains the reflections of over fifty AIC and Mennonite colleagues concerning the significance and impact of this long standing partnership Their stories illustrate the disparate threads of a sixty year experiment in shared endeavor while offering insight into the history of the church and missions in Africa This book is a powerful account of mutual learning forgiveness and growth It is an excellent resource for lovers of story students of post colonialism and indigenous Christianity and all those concerned with building relationships across cultural and racial divides Blacks in the Mennonite Church (MC) John I.
