Making Sense of Women's Lives , Lauri Umansky, Michele Plott, 2000-08-01 Making Sense of Women's Lives presents a wide range of writings about women's lives in the United States Michele Plott and Lauri Umansky have drawn on their experiences as both students and professors to assemble the collection Seeking to provide as full a sampling from a diverse and intellectually vibrant field as one volume permits the editors have also chosen writing that makes an enjoyable read A few of the selections here represent the undisputed classics of the field More of them constitute simply the works drawn from academic and nonacademic sources alike that could make a difference in understanding what it means to be female in America Making Sense of Women's Lives is intended as the primary text in Women's Studies courses With that usage in mind Plott and Umansky have provided brief introductions to each article to help students understand the author's perspectives Thought and discussion questions follow each selection The book contains as well numerous Flash Exercises suggestions for class exercises and activities The editors have used these activities in their courses over the past decade in conjunction with readings in this volume and have found that the full complement of materials coalesces into an intellectually powerful introduction to Women's Studies A Collegiate Press book      Slave Women in the New World Marietta Morrissey, 1989

Manhandled Black Females Victoria King, 1992 Commentary and analysis on how black women are viewed and treated in society      Jesus and Justice Peter Goodwin Heltzel, 2009-07-21 This timely book investigates the increasing visibility and influence of evangelical Christians in recent American politics with a focus on racial justice Peter Goodwin Heltzel considers four evangelical social movements Focus on the Family the National Association of Evangelicals Christian Community Development Association and Sojourners The political motives and actions of evangelical groups are founded upon their conceptions of Jesus Christ Heltzel contends He traces the roots of contemporary evangelical politics to the prophetic black Christianity tradition of Martin Luther King Jr and the socially engaged evangelical tradition of Carl F H Henry Heltzel shows that the basic tenets of King's and Henry's theologies have led their evangelical heirs toward a prophetic evangelicalism in a shade of blue green blue symbolizing the tragedy of black suffering in the Americas and green symbolizing the hope of a prophetic evangelical engagement with poverty AIDS and the environment This fresh theological understanding of evangelical political groups shines new light on the ways evangelicals shape and are shaped by broader American culture

Understanding Domestic Homicide Neil Websdale, 1999-05-28 Case histories of some 300 homicides involving family members framed within their interpersonal familial cultural and situational contexts      A Companion to American Art John Davis, Jennifer A. Greenhill, Jason D. LaFountain, 2015-01-23 A Companion to American Art presents 35 newly commissioned essays by leading scholars that explore the methodology historiography and current state of the field of American art history Features contributions from a balance of established and emerging scholars art and architectural historians and other specialists Includes several paired essays to emphasize dialogue and debate between scholars on important contemporary issues in American art history Examines topics such as the methodological stakes in the writing of American art history changing ideas about what constitutes Americanness and the relationship of art to public culture Offers a fascinating portrait of the evolution and current state of the field of American art history and suggests future directions of scholarship After the Glory Donald Robert Shaffer, 2004 Shaffer chronicles the postwar transition of black veterans from the Union army as well as their subsequent life patterns political involvement family and marital life experiences with social welfare comradeship with other veterans and memories of the war itself He draws on such sources as Civil War pension records to fashion a collective biography a social history of both ordinary and notable lives resurrecting the words and memories of many black veterans to provide an intimate view of their lives and struggles BOOK JACKET Black Women/white Men Eddie Donoghue, 2002 Using archival material and other existing sources this book graphically documents the sexual exploitation of female slaves in holding pens on the West Coast of Africa on slave ships during the Trans Atlantic crossing and on plantations in the Danish West Indies now known as the United States Virgin Islands In this book Donoghue successfully demonstrates how under the Danish Slave Codes it was impossible to rape a slave He notes that if a female slave died during her resistance to the sexual advances of any master her owner was entitled to compensation by law The author further notes that the diminishing slave population near the end of the eighteenth century triggered the development of a comprehensive plan for the breeding of slaves in the Danish West Indian colony The blueprints included the granting of generous loans to planters to import female slaves of childbearing age Also every black female slave who bore her master a healthy child was rewarded monetarily Although it is true that some slaves welcomed sexual liaisons with their white masters and served as concubines or housekeepers the book provides compelling evidence that many resisted by resorting to abortion infanticide poisoning marronage and suicide Fully indexed with extensive notes and an invaluable bibliography the book successfully chronicles a relatively unexplored dimension of slavery in the Danish West Indies The State Records of North Carolina North Carolina, 1890 The State Records of North Carolina: 1662-1712-1788-1790 North Carolina, 1886 Feminist Ethics Claudia Card, 1991 Fifteen essays address subjects ranging from the history of feminist ethics to the logic of pluralist feminism and present feminist perspectives on such topics as terrorism bitterness women trusting other women and survival and ethics Paper edition unseen 14 95 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Women's Issues Margaret McFadden, 1997 Contains entries that provide information about women's issues discussing abortion affirmative action child care and feminism Male Rage Female Fury Marilyn Maxwell, 2000-09-26 In four chapters each dedicated to an experimental American novelist of the postmodern period Male Rage Female Fury investigates what happens when novels that have defied traditional literary conventions such as temporal chronology refuse to break with traditional gender based stereotypes The result Maxwell argues is an ambiguity or internal tension that may eventually produce more misogynistic images within the texts Central to the study is an analysis of the violence male and female initiated in the works of the minimalists Barthelme and Didion and the mythicists Pynchon and Morrison     The Progressive Woman ,1912

Annual Editions Robert Maddox,1997     Race and Nature from Transcendentalism to the Harlem Renaissance

Paul Outka,2008-07-15 Winner of the 2009 Biennial Prize for Ecocriticism from the Association for the Study of Literature and the Environment Race and Nature from Transcendentalism to the Harlem Renaissance examines a neglected but centrally important issue in critical race studies and ecocriticism how natural experience became racialized in America from the antebellum period through the early twentieth century Drawing on theories of sublimity and trauma the book offers a critical and cultural history of the racial fault line in American environmentalism that to this day divides largely white wilderness preservation groups and the largely minority environmental justice movement Outka offers a detailed exploration of the historically fraught relation between the construction of natural experience and of white and black racial identity In denaturalizing race and racializing nature the book bridges race theory and ecocriticism in a way vitally important to both disciplines     Women's Issues: A-Fir ,1997     Women and Values Marilyn Pearsall,1986 In this collection of landmark essays by outstanding feminist thinkers you will find views on ethical issues from a variety of feminist perspectives Dr Pearsall provides an overview of the development of feminist theory along with significant work by Simone de Beauvoir as a basis for understanding the 37 contemporary writings including Postmodern selections that follow Arranged topically these highly readable essays discuss women s philosophical responses to values society politics law religion art and ethics
