understanding the deeply entrenched causes of instability and identifying the most sustainable paths to peace This meticulously researched account is essential reading for all students researchers and policymakers working on post conflict societies

The Reality of Aid The Reality of Aid,2008-01-15 This report reveals that recent trends in global aid since 2001 demonstrate the foreign policy priorities of donors in the global war on terror The wars in Afghanistan and Iraq have captured more than a third of the new aid resources allocated by donors since 2001 While recent aid resources have been diverted new aid pledges made in 2005 still fall far short of the urgently needed financing to meet even the minimal Millennium Development Goals In 2007 the international community has an opportunity to replace rhetoric and policy slights of hand with policies and resources that could truly make a difference for a decade devoted to ending global poverty and creating conditions for peace

Conversion Survey 2005 Bonn International Center for Conversion,2005 Despite progress in a number of areas the UN Millennium Development Goals MDGs are unlikely to be met unless major policy changes occur This year s conversion survey advocates new approaches towards states in conflict and governments which fail to provide their citizens with basic security welfare arguing at the same time that high military spending detracts from the agreed goal of increasing overseas development aid Such incontestable links between security and development hover in the background of the survey While much lip service is paid to the interdependence of the two this seldom translates into integrated policies Although the MDGs provide a powerful vision what is still lacking is an added perspective aimed at improving people s security by enhancing conflict prevention post conflict peacebuilding and conversion BICC analyzes global trends and developments over the last year by examining three issue areas arms and resources the conversion related aspects of peacebuilding and the link between natural resources and conflict Three topical chapters subsequently explore certain aspects of conversion in more detail how privatization is increasingly permeating the military sphere options for implementing disarmament demobilization and reintegration especially DDR without camps and two prominent cases of security sector reform SSR Afghanistan and Iraq

Can Security Sector Reform Contribute to the Reduction of Gender-Based Violence? Susanne Nill,2011-05 Master s Thesis from the year 2011 in the subject Politics International Politics Topic Development Politics grade 1 7 University of Duisburg Essen course Politikwissenschaften Internationale Beziehungen und Entwicklungspolitik language English abstract The ambition of this thesis is to investigate the significance of gender issues for reforming the security sector Further on it will be analyzed which gender strategies are crucial for police reform and to which extent gender sensitive police reform GSPR can contribute to a reduction of violence against women The case study shall examine to which extent gender issues were integrated in GSPR in Sierra Leone Based on these findings this analysis will develop recommendations how gender can be integrated successfully into security sector reform The theoretical part of this paper illustrates the concept of security sector reform and its meaning for peace building and development In addition relevant dimensions and actors are introduced combined with the exemplification of influencing factors and potential obstacles Afterwards the concept of gender is discussed including its relevance for development cooperation as well as a description of gender based violence and its consequences The theoretical part concludes by merging these two concepts and illustrates the relevance and strategies of gender sensitive police reform The second part of this analysis focuses on gender and police reform in Sierra Leone This chapter begins with a brief description of the civil war in Sierra Leone as well as the prevalence of gender based violence Afterwards the chapter analyses to which extent gender sensitive strategies were integrated in police reform The paper concludes with recommendations for further gender sensitive strategies in the security sector and argues if effective police reform can reduce the emergence of gender based violence

Readings on Governance and Development ,2005 With reference to Nepal contributed articles Defence, Security and Development Saadet Deger,Robert West,1987 Artikel med matematiske udtryk Security and Development Neclâ Yongaçoğlu Tschirgi,Michael S. Lund,Francesco Mancini,2010 Although policymakers and practitioners alike have enthusiastically embraced the idea that security and development are interdependent the precise nature and implications of the dynamic interplay between the two phenomena have been far from clear The authors of Security and Development Searching for Critical Connections realistically assess the promise and shortcomings of integrated security development policies as a strategy for conflict prevention Addressing cross cutting issues and also presenting detailed country case studies they move beyond rhetoric and generalization to make an important contribution to the international conflict prevention agenda
