Conquest Episodes 1 3:

Joshua 1-12 Thomas B. Dozeman, 2015-01-01 An acknowledged expert on the Hebrew Bible Thomas Dozeman offers a fresh translation of the Hebrew and Greek texts of the book of Joshua and explores the nature function and causes of the religious violence depicted therein By blending the distinct teachings of Deuteronomy and the Priestly literature Dozeman provides a unique interpretation of holy war as a form of sacred genocide arguing that since peace in the promised land required the elimination of the populations of all existent royal cities a general purging of the land accompanied the progress of the ark of the covenant This essential work of religious scholarship demonstrates how the theme of total genocide is reinterpreted as partial conquest when redactors place Joshua an independent book between Deuteronomy and Judges The author traces the evolution of this reinterpretation of the central themes of religious violence while providing a comparison of the two textual versions of Joshua and an insightful analysis of the book s reception history The Deuteronomistic History Hypothesis Mark A. O'Brien, 1989 Revision of author s doctoral thesis submitted to the Melbourne College of Divinity in 1987
