Consequence Of Crime:

Crime and Criminality Ronald D. Hunter, Mark L. Dantzker, 2005-01-01 A Digest of the Criminal Law (crimes and Punishments) Sir James Fitzjames Stephen, 1883 Participation in Crime Alan Reed, Michael Bohlander, 2016-05-13

Following on from the earlier edited collection Loss of Control and Diminished Responsibility this book is the first volume in the Substantive Issues in Criminal Law series. It serves as a leading point of reference in the area relating to participation in crime and identifies the need for a consistent approach to the doctrinal and theoretical underpinnings of complicity liability. With a section on the UK analysing points of current interest the book also has a large comparative section dealing with foreign jurisdictions and examines on the basis of a unified research grid how different legal systems treat core issues of participation in the context of criminal law. This book is a valuable reference resource for those in the criminal justice community in the UK and abroad and for academics, the judiciary and policy makers.

Transactions National association for the promotion of social science, 1872 Transactions of the National Association for the Promotion of Social Science National Association for the Promotion of Social Science (Great Britain), 1872. The volume for 1886 contains the proceedings of the Conference on temperance legislation. London 1886.

Derived from the renowned multi volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this book provides a practical analysis of criminal law in China. An introduction presents the necessary background information about the framework and sources of the criminal justice system and then proceeds to a detailed examination of the grounds for criminal liability, the justification of criminal offences, the defences that diminish or excuse criminal liability, the classification of criminal offences and the sanctions system. Coverage of criminal procedure focuses on the organization of investigations, pre trial proceedings, trial stage and legal remedies. A final part describes the execution of sentences and orders, the prison system and the extinction of custodial sanctions or sentences. Its succinct yet scholarly nature, as well as the practical quality of the information it provides, make this book a valuable resource for criminal lawyers, prosecutors, law enforcement officers and criminal court judges handling cases connected with China. Academics and researchers as well as the various international organizations in the field will welcome this very useful guide and will appreciate its value in the study of comparative criminal law.

A Digest of Important Cases on the Law of Crimes John Romain Rood, 1906 A Collective Theory of Genocidal Intent Sangkul Kim, 2016-05-24.

Tackling one of the most confusing and controversial issues in the field of international criminal law, i.e. the genocidal intent element, this monograph seeks to develop an account of genocidal intent from a collectivist perspective.

Drawing upon the two layered structure of the crime of genocide composed of the conduct level and context level it detects the genocidal intent element at the context level The genocidal intent found in this manner belongs to a collective which significantly departs from the prior individualistic understandings of the notion of genocidal intent The author argues that the crime of genocide is not a crime of mens rea Collective genocidal intent at the context level operates in a way that renders the crime of genocide itself a criminal enterprise The idea of genocide as a criminal enterprise also suggests that genocide is a leadership crime in respect of which only the high level actors can be labeled as principals as opposed to accessories The book criticizes the dominant individualistic approaches to genocidal intent in particular the knowledge based approach which have thus far governed the relevant jurisprudential and academic analysis It further demonstrates that the hidden notion of collective genocide silently governs the relevant international jurisprudence Practitioners and academics in the field of international criminal law and related disciplines will find in this book a new approach to the crime of genocide The text is the first ever book length exposition of a collective account of genocidal intent Its accessibility is highly enhanced by relevant footnotes Sangkul Kim is Lecturer at Korea University in Seoul and Research Fellow with the Centre for International Law Research and Policy CILRAP He served as Associate Legal Adviser at the Office of the Prosecutor of the International Criminal Court 2004 2008 He earned law degrees from Korea University and Georgetown University Law Center
