Contagion Questions And Answers:

999 Questions and Answers Frank Heck, 1924      Dr. Evans "How to Keep Well" William Augustus Evans, 1917      Some Answered Questions 'Abdu'l-Bahá, 1918

Some Answered Questions by Laura Clifford Barney first published in 1918 is a rare manuscript the original residing in one of the great libraries of the world This book is a reproduction of that original which has been scanned and cleaned by state of the art publishing tools for better readability and enhanced appreciation Restoration Editors mission is to bring long out of print manuscripts back to life Some smudges annotations or unclear text may still exist due to permanent damage to the original work We believe the literary significance of the text justifies offering this reproduction allowing a new generation to appreciate it

Some Answered Questions 'Abdu'l-Bahá, 1908      The Ethics of Belief Jonathan Matheson, Rico Vitz, 2014-08-14

How do people form beliefs and how should they do so This book presents seventeen new essays on these questions drawing together perspectives from philosophy and psychology The first section explores the ethics of belief from an individualistic framework It begins by examining the question of doxastic voluntarism i e the extent to which people have control over their beliefs It then shifts to focusing on the kinds of character that epistemic agents should cultivate what their epistemic ends ought to be and the way in which these issues are related to other traditional questions in epistemology The section concludes by examining questions of epistemic value of whether knowledge is in some sense primary and of whether the ethics of belief falls within the domain of epistemology or ethics The second section extends this traditional debate to issues concerning the social dimensions of belief formation It begins with essays by social psychologists discussing the past three decades of research in lay epistemics It continues by examining Humean Kantian and feminist insights into the social aspects of belief formation as well as questions concerning the ethics of assertion The section concludes with a series of essays examining a topic that is currently of great interest to epistemologists namely the significance of peer disagreement

Metaphor Studies: Theories, Methods, Approaches, and Future Perspectives Ilaria Rizzato, Valentina Cuccio, Aletta Gesina Dorst, 2024-12-12

Metaphor has been studied as a linguistic conceptual and communicative phenomenon in a wide range of disciplines including linguistics literary studies philosophy education political science media studies communication science psychology and neurosciences While the Cognitive Theory of Metaphor has dominated the field since the cognitive turn in the 1980s alternatives have been proposed including the Neural Theory of Metaphor the Relevance Theory Approach the Complex Systems Approach and the Dynamic Systems Approach Though studies are still often text based there is a growing body of research on visual metaphor multimodal metaphor and gestural metaphor as well as experimental research ranging from studies on metaphor processing and comprehension to studies in NLP and machine learning Metaphor Studies is thus a highly interdisciplinary field that encompasses a myriad of theories approaches and methods In current metaphor research each of these strands is facing new challenges and offering new venues of cutting edge research using state of the art technologies Researchers tend to focus on their own research areas and provide in depth views within the scope of their own disciplines Metaphor Studies do not seem to escape this phenomenon in spite of the large number of disciplines they draw on ranging from linguistics to psychology to the theory of science Hence there seem to be little cooperation and communication across different fields methods and approaches having metaphors and figurative language as their main object of investigation This Research Topic aims to promote cross fertilization among the many research areas involved in Metaphor Studies thus bringing together different methods and perspectives and offering a comprehensive overview of the possible research scenarios

Supercommunicators Charles Duhigg, 2024-02-20 From the Globe and Mail and New York Times bestselling author of The Power of Habit an investigation of what makes conversations work and how we can all learn to be supercommunicators at work and in our lives We all know people who seem capable of connecting with almost anyone They are the ones we turn to for advice the ones who ask deep questions but who also seem to hear what we are trying to say What do they know about conversation that makes them so special And what can they tell us about how communication really works

Supercommunicators Charles Duhigg argues understand some by intuition some by hard won experience that there is a science to how human beings connect through words They understand that whenever we speak we re actually participating in three distinct conversations What is this really about How do we feel And who are we They know the importance of recognizing and then matching each kind of conversation and how to hear the complex emotions subtle negotiations and hidden beliefs that color and inform everything we say Our pasts our values our affiliations our identities shape every discussion we have from who will pick up the kids to how we want to be treated at work With his trademark insight and clarity Duhigg shows readers how to recognize these three conversations and teaches us the skills we need to navigate them more successfully Communication he argues is a superpower By bringing readers into jury deliberations and fraught CIA recruitments into Netflix s company wide conversations about equity and the writers room of The Big Bang Theory we learn why some people are able to make themselves heard and to hear others so clearly We learn how to recognize and leverage the hidden layers that lurk beneath every conversation In the end we learn a simple but powerful lesson We can connect with anyone as long as we understand how conversations work Bible Student and Religious Outlook ,1923 Boston Medical and Surgical Journal ,1891
