Chinese Cinema Chih-p'ing Chou, Joanne Chiang, 2013-07-10 Most Chinese language textbooks today cater to beginners and intermediate level students but virtually none address the unique needs of advanced students seeking to expand or reinforce their language skills in one semester Readings in Contemporary Chinese Cinema fills this gap through the use of critically acclaimed Chinese films to teach students Chinese while also broadening their knowledge about China The authors have carefully chosen ten movies produced in recent decades by filmmakers from mainland China Taiwan and Hong Kong Set broadly within the twentieth century these classic films are representative of both urban and rural life and vividly depict the diversity of perspectives that comprise contemporary Chinese society The authors provide an informative synopsis and critique of each movie and include selections of movie dialogue that allow students to practice and build proficiency The comprehensive lessons are supplemented with exercises sentence pattern examples English language glossaries and extensive vocabulary lists There are also discussion questions that can be used in conjunction with screenings of the films Readings in Contemporary Chinese Cinema is designed for students with three or more years of college level instruction in modern Chinese and can be used alone or as a sequel to Anything Goes An Advanced Reader of Modern Chinese It has been proven effective at Princeton University and in the Princeton in Beijing program and is ideal for those returning from study abroad in China

Modern Chinese Lexicology Ge Benyi, 2018-03-19 Centring on words which connect vocabulary and semantic morphemes this book makes a systemic and in depth analysis on the study of modern Chinese lexicology Firstly it clarifies the definitions and properties of vocabulary words and semantic morphemes in Chinese Then the structure forms of Chinese words are examined It is worth noting that this research is one of the first to distinguish word formation and lexical morphology It observes that word formation studies how neologisms are coined while lexical morphology refers to the ways in which semantic morphemes are combined with each other On word meaning and its clustering it discusses the relationship between word meaning and concept as well as the criteria and principles of the clustering Specifically it studies monosemes polysemes synonyms near synonyms antonyms etc including their characteristics and types Lastly it explores the evolution of word meaning and its laws as well as the dynamic form of vocabulary This book will be a valuable reference for scholars and students in linguistics especially in Chinese lexical studies
