Aanstoos,1984 Staging Death Anastasia Dakouri-Hild,Michael John Boyd,2016-12-19 Places are social lived ideational landscapes constructed by people as they inhabit their natural and built environment An archaeology of place attempts to move beyond the understanding of the landscape as inert background or static fossil of human behaviour From a specifically mortuary perspective this approach entails a focus on the inherently mutable transient and performative qualities of deathscapes how they are remembered obliterated forgotten reworked or revisited over time Despite latent interest in this line of enquiry few studies have explored the topic explicitly in Aegean archaeology This book aims to identify ways in which to think about the deathscape as a cross between landscapes tombs bodies and identities supplementing and expanding upon well explored themes in the field e g tombs as vehicles for the legitimization of power funerary landscapes as arenas of social and political competition The volume recasts a wealth of knowledge about Aegean mortuary cultures against a theoretical background bringing the field up to date with recent developments in the archaeology of place Venice Charles Yriarte,1880
