Consumer Studies 2013 November Grade 11:

Food and Cooking Skills Education Anita Tull, 2018-01-29 Food and Cooking Skills Education FCSE is a complex mix of policy and practicality educational theory and pedagogy classroom and government policy This book shows how FCSE has been at the centre of a tussle between education and policy for decades It reviews how FCSE has grappled with various significant issues of concern that threaten to marginalise it and pose problems for educational practicalities as expectations are increased but resources are squeezed It assesses the debate about the significance and importance of acquiring practical food and cooking skills in a society where the purchase of ready made food has become commonplace and public knowledge of where our food comes from is noticeably lacking This has contributed to the escalating incidence of diet related diseases and the attendant cost to society and threatened environmental sustainability In turn governments have reacted by proposals to make practical cooking skills a statutory National Curriculum subject as part of the armoury for tackling such costs Based on detailed research conducted across England and Wales as well as comparisons with thirty five other countries or states the author makes recommendations for policy to manage this challenge facing contemporary society

Misinformation and Mass Audiences Brian G. Southwell, Emily A. Thorson, Laura Sheble, 2018-01-24 Lies and inaccurate information are as old as humanity but never before have they been so easy to spread Each moment of every day the Internet and broadcast media purvey misinformation either deliberately or accidentally to a mass audience on subjects ranging from politics to consumer goods to science and medicine among many others Because misinformation now has the potential to affect behavior on a massive scale it is urgently important to understand how it works and what can be done to mitigate its harmful effects Misinformation and Mass Audiences brings together evidence and ideas from communication research public health psychology political science environmental studies and information science to investigate what constitutes misinformation how it spreads and how best to counter it The expert contributors cover such topics as whether and to what extent audiences consciously notice misinformation the possibilities for audience deception the ethics of satire in journalism and public affairs programming the diffusion of rumors the role of Internet search behavior and the evolving efforts to counteract misinformation such as fact checking programs The first comprehensive social science volume exploring the prevalence and consequences of and remedies for misinformation as a mass communication phenomenon Misinformation and Mass Audiences will be a crucial resource for students and faculty researching misinformation policymakers grappling with questions of regulation and prevention and anyone concerned about this troubling yet perhaps unavoidable dimension of current media systems

Campus Diversity John M. Carey, Katherine

Clayton, Yusaku Horiuchi, 2019-12-19 Media politicians and the courts portray college campuses as divided over diversity and affirmative action But what do students and faculty really think This book uses a novel technique to elicit honest opinions from students and faculty and measure preferences for diversity in undergraduate admissions and faculty recruitment at seven major universities breaking out attitudes by participants race ethnicity gender socio economic status and political partisanship Scholarly excellence is a top priority everywhere but the authors show that when students consider individual candidates they favor members of all traditionally underrepresented groups by race ethnicity gender and socio economic background Moreover there is little evidence of polarization in the attitudes of different student groups The book reveals that campus communities are less deeply divided than they are often portrayed to be although affirmative action remains controversial in the abstract there is broad support for prioritizing diversity in practice Freaks, Geeks, and Cool Kids Murray Milner, 2015-08-20 In Freaks Geeks and Cool Kids Second Edition award winning sociologist Murray Milner tries to understand why teenagers behave the way they do The first edition drew upon two years of intensive fieldwork in one high school and 300 written interviews about high schools across the country where he argued that consumer culture greatly impacts the way our youth relate to one another and understand themselves and society Milner now expands on that concept with a new year of fieldwork fifteen years after he began He has uncovered in teens a move away from consumerism and towards the cultural capital of information in a time of social media and standardized tests Advertising and Violence Nora J. Rifon, Marla Royné, Les Carlson, 2014-12-18 Advertising and Violence identifies and analyzes the important issues related to violence in advertising and its overall effects on society The book is based on a widely cited special issue of the Journal of Advertising and includes eight new chapters that expand the book's coverage The objective of the book is to compile a compendium of current thinking perspectives theoretical viewpoints and research relevant to the violence and advertising interface The chapter authors all notable experts in the field take a multidisciplinary approach that incorporates perspectives from disciplines other than marketing in order to provide a broad based view of how advertising and violence coalesce and the policy implications of this juxtaposition Food and Nutrition Bulletin, 2014 Federal Register Index, 2010 The Nation, 1928 Options Alert, 1977 Standard & Poor's Stock Reports, 2008 Who's Who in the South and Southwest Marquis Who's Who, Marquis Who's Who Staff, 1998-12 Provides current coverage of a broad range of individuals from across the South and Southwest Includes approximately 17 500 names from the region embracing Alabama Arkansas Florida Georgia Kentucky Louisiana Mississippi North Carolina Oklahoma South Carolina Tennessee Texas Virginia West Virginia Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands Because of its importance and its contiguity to the southwestern United States Mexico is also covered in this volume Who's Who in the Midwest Marquis Who's Who, Marquis Who's Who, LLC, 2004-06 Who's Who in America, 1996 Marquis Who's Who, Inc, 1995-09 We make very heavy use of WHO S WHO IN AMERICA in our library It's used daily to check biographical facts on people of distinction MARIE WATERS HEAD OF
