Consumer Involvement in Private EU Competition Law Enforcement Maria Ioannidou, 2015-09-03 Despite the growing importance of consumer welfare in EU competition law debates there remains a significant disconnect between rhetoric and reality as consumers and their interests still play only an ancillary role in this area of law Consumer Involvement in Private EU Competition Law Enforcement is the first monograph to exclusively address this highly topical and much debated subject providing a timely and wide ranging examination of the need for more active consumer participation in competition law Written by an expert in the field it sets out a comprehensive framework of policy implications and arguments for greater involvement positioning the debate in the context of a broader EU law perspective It outlines pragmatic approaches to remedial and procedural measures that would enable consumer empowerment Finally the book identifies key institutional and political obstacles to the adoption of effective measures and suggests alternative routes to enhance the role of consumers in private competition law enforcement The book's innovative approach combining normative analysis and practical solutions make it invaluable for academics policy makers and practitioners in the field The Help-yourself City

Gordon C. C. Douglas, 2018 When local governments neglect public services or community priorities how do concerned citizens respond In The Help Yourself City Gordon Douglas looks closely at people who take urban planning into their own hands with homemade signs and benches guerrilla bike lanes and more Douglas explores the frustration creativity and technical expertise behind these interventions but also the position of privilege from which they often come Presenting a needed analysis of this growing trend from vacant lots to city planning offices The Help Yourself City tells a street level story of people s relationships to their urban surroundings and the individualization of democratic responsibility African Luxury Branding Mehita Iqani, 2022-12-23 Bringing together critical race queer and decolonial analytical approaches visual analysis and multimodal discourse analysis this book explores the discursive strategies deployed by African luxury brands in an age of cross platform intertextual branding Building on literature examining the aesthetics and politics of African luxury this book demonstrates how leading African luxury brands create visual material speaking to complex sensibilities of culture nature and future Iqani shows how powerful brand narratives and strategies reveal ethical and ideological messages that function to re position Africa in an increasingly congested global marketplace of ideas In acknowledging that there is a strong political validity to recognizing the importance of African brands staking their claim in luxury this book also problematizes the role these brands play in the promotion of luxury discourses advancing the project of capitalism and their contribution to broader patterns of inequality Shedding new light not only on luxury branding strategies but also on the idea of a luxurious global Africanity and on the complex cultural politics of South Africa African Luxury Branding will be of interest to advanced students and researchers in disciplines including Critical Advertising Studies African Studies Media and Communications
