

Chapter 18 – America Claims an Empire

18.1 – Imperialism and America

Why did Americans support imperialism? Imperialism: stronger countries taking control over weaker countries

1. Desire for military strength
  2. Create new markets
  3. Superiority of American culture (racism)
1. Military Strength: Alfred T. Mahan built up the U.S. Navy, built modern battleships, and the U.S. became the largest naval power.
  2. New Markets: businesses needed markets for their goods and raw materials for their factories
  3. Superiority: Americans were believed they were better than people in other countries and some wanted to spread their Christianity and culture to others

The U.S. buys territory

- Alaska in 1867 from Russia for $7.2 million
- The U.S. forced Hawaii to build Pearl Harbor, a naval base, in 1887.
- William McKinley annexed Hawaii in 1898.

18.2 – The Spanish-American War

Cuba and Spain were at war with one another and Cubans wanted American aid. Yellow journalism exaggerated the news.

Why did Americans become angry with Spain?

1. A Spanish official insulted President William McKinley saying he was a weak leader
2. The U.S.S. Maine was in Cuba to protect Americans, but the ship exploded and 260 people died. Newspapers blamed Spain

Tuininga,2025-03-13 The epic tragic story of the Puritan conquest of New England through the eyes of those who lived it Over several decades beginning in 1620 tens of thousands of devout English colonists known as Puritans came to America They believed that bringing Christianity to the natives would liberate them from darkness Daniel Gookin Massachusetts s missionary superintendent called such efforts a war of the Lord a war in which Christ would deliver captive souls from Satan s bondage When Puritan soldiers slaughtered hundreds of indigenous men women and children at Fort Mystic in 1637 during the Pequot War they believed they were doing God s will The same was true during King Philip s War perhaps the bloodiest war in American history The Puritan clergyman Increase Mather described this conflict too as a war of the Lord a war in which God was judging the enemies of his people Matthew J Tuininga argues that these two wars are inextricably linked Puritan Christianity he shows shaped both the spiritual and military conquests of New England from beginning to end It is not only that the people who did these things happened to be Christians it is that Christianity was the framework they used to guide interpret and defend every major act of peace or war They made sincere efforts to treat Natives according to Christian principles of love and justice as they understood them and their sustained missionary efforts demonstrate how serious they were about saving native souls Yet they appealed to Christianity just as confidently when they subjugated enslaved or killed native peoples in the name of justice. A mission they saw as spiritual, peaceful, benevolent and just devolved into a military conquest that was virtually genocidal. This book tells the story of how this happened from the perspective of those who lived it both colonists and Native Americans.
