Personal Competences in the Academic and Work Environment: Advancing Towards Psychological Wellbeing María del Mar Molero Jurado, María del Carmen Pérez-Fuentes , Carol D. Ryff, Pablo Molina, 2025-09-01 A behavioral repertoire composed of personal competencies such as emotional intelligence self awareness self esteem resilience assertiveness and autonomy has been considered crucial for positive personal and individual development These competencies support healthy psychological functioning and have a positive impact on promoting the health and psychological well being of individuals The relevance of psychological well being is not limited to the absence of psychological distress but implies a state of fulfillment and satisfaction in the various domains of a person s life Personal competencies are therefore a crucial skill for people's lives in general and in the academic and work environment in particular. It has been found that professionals in any field of work with good levels of personal competencies experience greater job satisfaction, better management of demanding situations, and less job burnout.
