Touzel, 2009 Schools today have transcended from the chalkboard to the whiteboard and are populated by students who are not frightened to use the technology of this new age of learning During this period of dynamic change teachers must be ready to meet the challenges of preparing students for a global society characterized by diversity and ever increasing expectations

Classroom Assessment James H. McMillan, 2001 Classroom Assessment embodies the notion that student evaluation is an integral part of teaching not something merely done after instruction to measure what students have learned The second edition of the book is designed to provide prospective and practicing teachers with 1 a concise presentation of assessment principles that clearly and specifically relate to instruction 2 current research and new directions in the field of assessment and 3 practical and realistic examples and suggestions The book's emphasis is on helping teachers understand the importance of establishing credible performance standards communicating these standards to students and providing feedback to students on their progress For those who need to use classroom assessment techniques

Classroom Assessment Peter W. Airasian, 1991-01-01 Classroom Assessment Concepts and Applications views classroom assessment as an everyday ongoing part of teaching integral to everything that happens in the classroom The text is organized to follow the natural progression of teacher decision making from organizing the class as a learning community to planning and conducting instruction to the formal evaluation of learning and finally to grading Classroom Assessment presents complex concepts clearly so that pre service teachers can understand them and solidly grounds these concepts in best practice through practical well integrated examples The text conceives of classroom assessment in a broader way than many other texts It focuses not only on the assessment needs of testing grading interpreting standardized tests and performance assessments but also on assessment concerns in organizing a classroom at the start of school planning and implementing instruction and strategies of teacher self reflection
