Document Indexing Information Retrieval:

Indexing and Retrieval of Non-Text Information Diane Rasmussen Neal,2012-10-30 The scope of this volume will encompass a collection of research papers related to indexing and retrieval of online non text information In recent years the Internet has seen an exponential increase in the number of documents placed online that are not in textual format These documents appear in a variety of contexts such as user generated content sharing websites social networking websites etc and formats including photographs videos recorded music data visualizations etc The prevalence of these contexts and data formats presents a particularly challenging task to information indexing and retrieval research due to many difficulties such as assigning suitable semantic metadata processing and extracting non textual content automatically and designing retrieval systems that speak in the native language of non text documents A Theory of Indexing Gerard Salton,1975-01-01 Test results are included which illustrate the effectiveness of the theory Indexing and Classification Winifred F. Pattern Recognition and Machine Intelligence Sergei O. Kuznetsov,Deba P. Mandal,Malay K. Kundu,Sankar Kumar Pal,2011-06-14 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 4th International Conference on Pattern Recognition and Machine Intelligence PReMI 2011 held in Moscow Russia in June July 2011 The 65 revised papers presented together with 5 invited talks were carefully reviewed and selected from 140 submissions The papers are organized in topical sections on pattern recognition and machine learning image analysis image and video information retrieval natural language processing and text and data mining watermarking steganography and biometrics soft computing and applications clustering and network analysis bio and chemo analysis and document image processing Automatic Indexing from Machine Readable Abstracts of Scientific Documents Pranas Zunde,1966 The Second Text REtrieval Conference (TREC-2) Donna K. Harman,1994 Information Retrieval Systems Gerald J. Kowalski,2007-08-23 The growth of the Internet and the availability of enormous volumes of data in digital form have necessitated intense interest in techniques to assist the user in locating data of interest The Internet has over 350 million pages of data and is expected to reach over one billion pages by the year 2000 Buried on the Internet are both valuable nuggets to answer questions as well as a large quantity of information the average person does not care about The Digital Library effort is also progressing with the goal of migrating from the traditional book environment to a digital library environment The challenge to both authors of new publications that will reside on this information domain and developers of systems to locate information is to provide the information and capabilities to sort out the non relevant items from those desired by the consumer In effect as we proceed down this path it will be the computer that determines what we see versus the human being The days of going to a library and browsing the new book shelf are being replaced by electronic searching the Internet or the library catalogs Whatever the search engines return will constrain our knowledge of what information is available An understanding of Information Retrieval Systems puts this new environment into perspective for both the creator of documents and the consumer trying to locate information

Maybury,2005-11-19 Chapter 1 places into perspective a total Information Storage and Retrieval System This perspective introduces new challenges to the problems that need to be theoretically addressed and commercially implemented Ten years ago commercial implementation of the algorithms being developed was not realistic allowing theoreticians to limit their focus to very specific areas Bounding a problem is still essential in deriving theoretical results But the commercialization and insertion of this technology into systems like the Internet that are widely being used changes the way problems are bounded From a theoretical perspective efficient scalability of algorithms to systems with gigabytes and terabytes of data operating with minimal user search statement information and making maximum use of all functional aspects of an information system need to be considered The dissemination systems using persistent indexes or mail files to modify ranking algorithms and combining the search of structured information fields and free text into a consolidated weighted output are examples of potential new areas of investigation The best way for the theoretician or the commercial developer to understand the importance of problems to be solved is to place them in the context of a total vision of a complete system Understanding the differences between Digital Libraries and Information Retrieval Systems will add an additional dimension to the potential future development of systems The collaborative aspects of digital libraries can be viewed as a new source of information that dynamically could interact with information retrieval techniques   Bibliography of Scientific and Industrial Reports ,1965-07   Proceedings of the American Documentation Institute Annual Meeting
