Mechanized Infantry Peter Kasurak,2020-02-01 Canada's Mechanized Infantry explores the largely ignored development of the infantry in the Canadian Army after the First World War Although many modern studies of technology and war focus on tanks and armour soldiers from the Second World War onward have discovered that success really depends on a combination of infantry armour and artillery to form combat teams Peter Kasurak demonstrates how the army implemented successful infantry vehicles and doctrine to ultimately further its military goals during the Second World War In the postwar period however progress was slowed by a top down culture and an unwillingness to abandon conventional thinking on the primacy of foot infantry and regimental organization This insightful book is the first to examine the challenges that have confronted the Canadian Army in transforming its infantry from First World War foot soldiers into a twenty first century combat force integrating soldiers vehicles weapons and electronics The Corps Canada. Peacekeeping, 1960-64 Kevin A. Spooner,2010-01-01 In 1960 the Republic of Congo teetered near collapse as its first government struggled to cope with civil unrest and mutinous armed forces When the UN established what would become the largest peacekeeping operation of the Cold War the Canadian government faced a difficult decision Should it support the intervention As Kevin Spooner demonstrates Canada s involvement in the mission was not preordained The Diefenbaker government became enmeshed in a complex web of foreign and defence policy determinants that caused it to have immediate and ongoing reservations reservations that challenge cherished notions of Canada s commitment to the UN and its status as a peacekeeper This book offers one of the first detailed accounts of Canada s involvement in UN peacekeeping It will appeal to those interested in Canadian foreign policy and relations with Africa in particular and the Congo crisis and United Nations peacekeeping more generally The Manual of Dates: a Dictionary of Reference to the Most Important Events in the History of Mankind George Henry Townsend,1874 Agriculturalstatistics, Ireland Ireland.
