ONE PAGER PROJECTS

WHAT IS A ONE PAGER?

One Pagers are images and text assignments that allow students to take the story and create a visual that they understand and represent them in a creative way.

One Pagers are a great way to assess students' understanding, but they are also a great way to assess students' creativity. Students can use their imagination to create a visual that represents the story in a way that is unique and creative. This can be done by using a variety of materials, such as paper, markers, and glue. Students can also use their imagination to create a visual that represents the story in a way that is unique and creative.

One of the best parts of a One Pager is that it allows students to express their creativity.
