Desai, 2008 Proceedings of the ... Conference New Zealand Geographical Society. Conference, New Zealand Geographical Society, 2001 Mapping Cultural Identity in Contemporary Australian Performance Helena Grehan, 2001 This book is an important addition to the current body of scholarly material on contemporary performance and theatre as it provides both a detailed focus on a number of important performance works as well as developing a framework for the interpretation of contemporary performance and the author demonstrates the myriad ways in which cultural identity can be represented and interpreted in performance colonial cultural landscape Hybrid Urbanism Nezar AlSayyad, 2001-03-30 Despite strong forces toward globalization much of late 20th century urbanism demonstrates a movement toward cultural differentiation Such factors as ethnicity and religious and cultural heritages have led to the concept of hybridity as a shaper of identity Challenging the common assumption that hybrid peoples create hybrid places and hybrid places house hybrid people this book suggests that hybrid environments do not always accommodate pluralistic tendencies or multicultural practices In contrast to the standard position that hybrid space results from the merger of two cultures the book introduces the concept of a third place and argues for a more sophisticated understanding of the principal In contributed chapters the book provides case studies of the third place enabling a comparative and transnational examination of the complexity of hybridity The book is divided into two parts Part one deals with pre 20th century examples of places that capture the intersection of modernity and hybridity Part two considers equivalent sites in the late 20th century demonstrating how hybridity has been a central feature of globalization Urban Christianity and Global Order Andrew Davey,2001 An introduction to urban theology and mission which takes into account the rapid spatial social and religious changes associated with urbanisation and globalisation Beginning with a definition and description of key terms the book then examines the characteristics of contemporary urban experience and examines the response of the Church to this reality Finally the book offers a number of theological resources for Christian presence and witness in towns and cities with glimpses of future issues and trends Contested Urban Heritage Brian J. Shaw,Roy Jones,1997 In this book the contributions address the following issues how spaces and places have been culturally constructed and how these constructions have been altered through time how these spaces and places might be interpreted as the intentional and unintentional outcomes of and representations of social relations which are themselves necessarily temporal and how all components of our increasingly pluralist societies contribute to the cultural constructions of these localities Adapt de l introduction Alternation ,2002 Darbai ir dienos ,2002 The Uses of Decoration Malcolm Miles,2000-06-29 Running through the book is a concern for the everyday for the seemingly small and insignificant ways in which people occupy the built environment which constitute what Henri Lefebvre calls representational spaces from awareness of this dimension of urban space and the failures consequent on ignorance of it in some kinds of modern architecture and planning the book moves to the question of sustainability BOOK JACKET Journal of Commonwealth and Postcolonial Studies ,2004 A Genealogy of Tropical Architecture Jiat-Hwee Chang,2009
