Communication Studies Past Papers 1a 22:

Cultural Studies in Question Marjorie Ferguson, Peter Golding, 1997-04-14 This major text offers a critical reappraisal of the contemporary practice of cultural studies. It focuses in particular on the contribution of cultural studies to the understanding of media communications and popular cultures in contemporary societies. The contributors, an outstanding group of internationally acclaimed scholars, examine topics such as the different strands of cultural studies and how they are developed, whether cultural studies is a coherent discipline, tensions and debates within cultural studies, alternative or related approaches to contemporary media and society, and the movement by cultural studies revisionists towards more empirical and sociological modes of analysis.

Media, Conflicts and the National Security Question Abiodun Adeniyi, Paul A. Obi, Sani K. Usman, Ibrahim U. Yusuf, 2025-03-15 This book explores how the media and journalism in a cross-disciplinary sense has treated conflicts in Nigeria, West Africa, and the Sahel. Contributors connect theoretical foundations with practical experiences in the study of media conflicts and national security, seeking to unravel the mediated and communication logic in news coverage and analyse the media's role in pre-conflict, in conflict, and post-conflict discourses. The work maps out the impact of mediated narratives on security, risk, terrorism, banditry, and general society, relying on local, on the spot, and ontological cultural experiences in Africa, especially Nigeria, Ghana, Sierra Leone, and other parts of West Africa.

Media, Culture, and Decolonization Wunpini Fatimata Mohammed, 2025-12-09 Media Culture and Decolonization: Re-righting the Subaltern Histories of Ghana invites us to look at media and culture from a decolonial perspective. Through Dagba epistemologies and knowledge systems, this book examines media by highlighting how African languages, cultures, and traditions can shift how we think of knowledge. It is an offering to anyone curious about the relationship between culture, language, and media. By focusing on African language media in Ghana, such as film, television, and radio the book emphasizes the importance of espousing a decolonial politic and praxis in the process of co creating knowledge with Indigenous communities It connects the struggles of global majority countries and demonstrates the ways in which neo colonialism and imperialism impede the work toward liberatory futures This book demonstrates the potential that African language media hold as tools of cultural and epistemological decolonization The Global Intercultural Communication Reader Molefi Kete Asante,Yoshitaka Miike,Jing Yin,2013-06-26 The Global Intercultural Communication Reader is the first anthology to take a distinctly non Eurocentric approach to the study of culture and communication In this expanded second edition editors Molefi Kete Asante Yoshitaka Miike and Jing Yin bring together thirty two essential readings for students of cross cultural intercultural and international communication This stand out collection aims to broaden and deepen the scope of the field by placing an emphasis on diversity including work from authors across the globe examining the processes and politics of intercultural communication from critical historical and indigenous perspectives The collection covers a wide range of topics the emergence and evolution of the field issues and challenges in cross cultural and intercultural inquiry cultural wisdom and communication practices in context identity and intercultural competence in a multicultural society the effects of globalization and ethical considerations Many readings first appeared outside the mainstream Western academy and offer diverse theoretical lenses on culture and communication practices in the world community Organized into five themed sections for easy classroom use The Global Intercultural Communication Reader includes a detailed bibliography that will be a crucial resource for today s students of intercultural communication
