Phenomenology or Deconstruction? Christopher Watkin,2009-03-03 Phenomenology or Deconstruction challenges traditional understandings of the relationship between phenomenology and deconstruction through new readings of the work of Maurice Merleau Ponty Paul Ricur and Jean Luc Nancy A constant dialogue with Jacques Derrida s engagement with phenomenological themes provides the impetus to establishing a new understanding of being and presence that exposes significant blindspots inherent in traditional readings of both phenomenology and deconstruction In reproducing neither a stock phenomenological reaction to deconstruction nor the routine deconstructive reading of phenomenology Christopher Watkin provides a fresh assessment of the possibilities for the future of phenomenology along with a new reading of the deconstructive legacy Through detailed studies of the philosophy of Merleau Ponty Ricur and Nancy he shows how a phenomenological tradition much wider and richer than Husserlian or Heideggerean thought alone can take account of Derrida s critique of ontology and yet still hold a commitment to the ontological This new reading of being and presence fundamentally re draws our understanding of the relation of deconstruction and phenomenology and provides the first sustained discussion of the possibilities and problems for any future deconstructive phenomenology
