Howell,Mark W. Lipsey,John J. Wilson,2014-06-18 This handbook promotes a comprehensive strategy founded on evidence based programming for juvenile justice systems to adopt or enhance their current system The comprehensive strategy is supported strongly by the broad research base that is now available This strategy recognizes first that a relatively small proportion of the juveniles who initially enter the juvenile justice system will prove to be serious violent or chronic offenders but that group accounts for a large proportion of the overall amount of delinquency An important component of a comprehensive evidence based juvenile justice system therefore is distinguishing these offenders from others and focusing attention and resources on that smaller group Second a comprehensive strategy recognizes that serious violent or chronic delinquency emerges along developmental pathways that progress from less to more serious profiles of offending Priority must be given to interrupting these offender careers by calibrating the level of supervision and control of the juveniles behavior to their level of risk The third major component of a comprehensive strategy therefore is effective intervention programs that are capable of reducing the recidivism of those juveniles at risk for further delinquency The Comprehensive Strategy for Serious Violent and Chronic Juvenile Offenders is an administrative framework that supports a continuum of services that parallel the development of offender careers This framework emphasizes evidence based programming specifically on recidivism reduction and supports protocols for developing comprehensive treatment plans that match effective services with offender treatment needs along the life course of delinquent careers as they move from intake onward to probation community programs confinement and reentry Juvenile justice systems will benefit from incorporation of a comprehensive strategy as provided in the handbook Community Organization Program Othello Dotson Powell,1921 Standards and Goals for Juvenile Justice United States. National Advisory Commission on Criminal Justice Standards and Goals,Interdepartmental Council to Coordinate All Federal Juvenile Delinquency Programs (U.S.),1974 Selections based on A National Strategy to Reduce Crime reports prepared by National Advisory Commission on Criminal Justice Standards and Goals representing staff effort of the Interdepartmental Council to Coordinate All Federal Juvenile Delinquency Programs in accord with Public Law 92 381 Juvenile Justice in America Clemens Bartollas,Stuart J. Miller,2001 This third edition of Juvenile Justice in America takes us directly into the new millennium with the incorporation of the most recent studies and statistical data available at the time of publication The book is now organized to allow the student to move quickly and decisively into the action of the police courts and corrections Major issues and findings from all of these subsystems of the justice system are discussed as well as new materials on gangs drugs guns and schools Where we are today is described and the issues of whether the juvenile system should be reformed or abolished whether hard or soft policies should prevail and whether the rights of juveniles should be extended are subjects of much attention Consideration is given to what works and what does not Materials on the profile of juveniles in trouble and the social context from which juveniles come are emphasized as are the treatments and programs available to them in the community and institutions A major new feature of this third edition is a chapter on International Juvenile Justice based on the 1985 Beijing Rules It illustrates just how far some countries have come and even more aptly how fa An Outline of a Community Program for the Prevention of Juvenile Delinquency California Youth Authority,1953
