Communicating Conflict Multilingual Case Studies Of The News Media:

Communicating Conflict Elizabeth Thomson, P. R. R. White, 2008-03-28 Communicating Conflict brings together a collection of multilingual case studies drawn from the international media. The contributors use methodologies drawn from Critical Discourse Analysis and Systemic Functional Linguistics to explore how these texts overtly or covertly advance particular value positions and world views. They pay particular attention to how the reader is positioned with respect to the events being described and using appraisal theory the various voices which are referenced by the text. New Discourse on Language Monika Bednarek, J. R. Martin, 2011-10-27 New Discourse on Language addresses the need for innovative analyses of multi-modal discourse identity and affiliation within functional linguistics. The chapters in this volume are connected by their common underlying theoretical approach Systemic Functional Linguistics (SFL) and by their focus on semantic variation across modalities of communication and between speakers as well as the negotiation of identity and affiliation. The analyses focus on a diverse range of texts from very different contexts using analytic techniques that are based on the latest research in this field. They represent a wealth of exploratory innovative and challenging perspectives and are a key contribution to the extension of systemic functional theory to the analysis of multimodality identity and affiliation. The volume is of interest to linguists, applied linguists, semioticians and communication theorists. Language and Journalism John Richardson, 2013-09-13 This book is an indispensable cutting-edge book for students and researchers of journalism studies seeking a text that illustrates and applies a range of linguistic and discourse analytic approaches to the analysis of journalism. While the form, function and politics of the language of journalism have attracted scholars from a wide range of academic disciplines, too often this analysis has reduced the work of journalists to text characteristics alone. In contrast, this collection is united by the principle that journalistic discourse is always socially situated and the result of a series of processes produced by journalists in accordance with particular production techniques and in specific institutional settings and as such analysis requires more than the methods offered by linguists. The contributors to this book draw on a range of the most prominent theoretical and methodological approaches to media discourse including Conversation Analysis, Critical Discourse Analysis, the APPRAISAL framework, Multi-modal Analysis and Rhetoric in making sense of the language of newspapers, national, local and minority press, television and online journalism. Written in an engaging style by distinguished academic authorities, this book provides a state-of-the-art review of the subject. This book was published as a special issue of Journalism Studies. Evaluation Across Newspaper Genres Jonathan Ngai, 2022-05-08 Evaluation Across Newspaper Genres: Hard News, Stories, Editorials and Feature Articles is the first book-length study of evaluation or stance in three major newspaper genres: hard news, stories, editorials and feature articles, the last of which is a Cinderella genre in linguistic studies. It offers a fresh approach to exploring the ways in which evaluation or stance contributes to the construction of the three newspaper genres, each with a distinct communicative purpose. Key features include using a 900,000-word comparable corpus of newspaper texts arranged by genre and topic domain drawing on a specially developed framework of analysis with a strong orientation to news values carrying out structural analysis by creating sub corpora of different parts of newspaper texts and adopting a functional approach to evaluation in newspaper discourse Evaluation Across Newspaper Genres amply demonstrates that evaluation plays a vital and yet dynamic role in the construction of hard news stories editorials and feature articles by performing a great variety of discourse functions In doing so the book also illuminates such important linguistic concepts as specificity variation and textual colligation Providing a new and unifying perspective on evaluation as a prime driver of text construction it will be of interest and use to researchers teachers and students of English language applied linguistics and journalism

Engagement in Professional Genres Carmen Sancho Guinda, 2019-04-24 Engagement has turned essential in today's communication as professional communities are becoming more specialised and transient and their audiences more diverse Promotionalism and competitiveness in addition increasingly pervade human activity and thus engaging readers listeners and viewers to attract and persuade them is part of the know how of almost every profession The eighteen chapters in this book written by well known discourse analysts from different nationalities and research backgrounds and with various interests and understandings of communicative engagement guide us through a discovery of perspectives and strategies across work settings and practices genres semiotic modes discourses disciplines and theoretical frameworks and methods They build a mosaic that leads to a broad picture of meta discursive engagement as di stance and raises current issues challenges and future research directions
