The Speaker's Handbook Jo Sprague, 1996 Now in its fourth edition, this public speaking handbook is appropriate for courses in introductory public speaking or business and professional speaking or can be used as a reference tool. Based on communication theory, the authors offer concrete suggestions on how to approach public speaking as a collaborative endeavor between the speaker and the listener.

Communication and Culture Joan Young Gregg, 1985 Intended for advanced ESL students to develop competence in expressing complex and meaningful ideas through writing, a composition exercises. Readings are unadapted selections in introductory cultural anthropology. Ends with informational appendices.

Teaching English as a Foreign Or Second Language Jerry Greer Gebhard, 1996 This creative book focuses on teaching English as a foreign or second language. It is designed for use by self-motivated teachers of EFL/ESL who seek to maximize their own potential as teachers and in doing so maximize the learning of their students. The book includes information about exploration of teaching/classroom interaction and management, teaching materials and media culture, and the sojourning teacher, as well as how language instructors can teach students listening, conversation, reading, and writing skills. It can be used by EFL/ESL teachers, not formally trained in teaching English to students of other languages, and by individuals who wish to increase their teaching skills through independent self-study. The book is appropriate for use in preservice teaching programs and inservice development programs. Teaching English as a Foreign or Second Language is unique in emphasizing self-development as central to being an EFL/ESL teacher. Each chapter presents a set of questions directly relevant to teaching and includes advice on teaching problems. An appendix provides addresses, phone numbers, and information on professional journals and publishing houses.

Aviation English Dominique Estival, Candace Farris, Brett Molesworth, 2016-01-08 Aviation English investigates the key issues related to the use of English for the purpose of communication in aviation and analyses the current research on language training, testing, and assessment in the area of Aviation English. Based on a series of recent empirical studies in aviation communication and taking an interdisciplinary approach, this book provides a description of Aviation English from a linguistic perspective, lays the foundation for increased focus in the area of Aviation English, and its assessment in the form of English Language Proficiency (ELP) tests. It critically assesses recent empirical research in the domain. This book makes an important contribution to the development of the field of Aviation English and will be of interest to researchers in the areas of applied linguistics, TESOL, and English for Specific
