Gifted Children Jeff Danielian, C. Matthew Fugate, Elizabeth Fogarty, 2021-09-23 From the pages of Teaching for High Potential a quarterly publication of the National Association for Gifted Children this collection of articles is sure to be of use to any educator of high ability students Topics included range from instructional methods across all content areas including tips and tools for reading and vocabulary instruction integrating STEM content and engaging students in math to identification differentiation and addressing gifted students social emotional needs Articles also delve into current issues pertinent to the field of gifted education and this unique group of students including underachievement and underrepresented minority populations as well as new classroom strategies such as Makerspaces and teaching growth mindset This resource can be used to enhance a classroom lesson guide curriculum development or supplement professional development The featured articles are unique well written for the audience and selected by reviewers who understand what teachers need Memory, History, Nation Susannah Radstone, 2017-09-04 In the last decade a focus on memory in the human sciences has encouraged new approaches to the study of the past As the humanities and social sciences have put into question their own claims to objectivity authority and universality memory has appeared to offer a way of engaging with knowledge of the past as inevitably partial subjective and local At the same time memory and memorial practices have become sites of contestation and the politics of memory are increasingly prominent This inter disciplinary volume demonstrates from a range of perspectives the complex cultural work and struggles over meaning that lie at the heart of what we call memory The chapters in this volume offer a complex awareness of the workings of memory and the ways in which different or changing histories may be explained They explore the relation between individual and social memory between real and imaginary event and fantasy history and myth Contradictory accounts or memories in direct contradiction to the historical record are not always the sign of a repressive authority attempting to cover something up The tension between memory as a safeguard against attempts to silence dissenting voices and memory's own implication in that silencing runs throughout the book Topics covered range from the Basque country to Cambodia from Hungary to South Africa from the Finnish Civil War to the cult Jim Jarmusch movie Dead Man from the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame to Australia Part I Transforming Memory is concerned primarily with the social and personal transmission of memory across time and generations Part II Remembering Suffering Trauma and History brings the after effects of catastrophe to the fore Part III Patterning the National Past the relation between nation and memory is the central issue Part IV And Then Silence reflects on the complex and multiple meaning of silence and oblivion wherein amnesia is often used as a figure for the denial of shamefu
