

WHAT IS INHERITANCE TAX?

Inheritance Tax is a tax on the estate (property, money and possessions) of someone who's died.

There's usually no Inheritance Tax to pay if either:

- The value of your estate is below the £325,000 threshold you leave everything above the £325,000 threshold to your spouse, civil partner, a charity or a community amateur sports club
- The standard Inheritance Tax rate is 40%. It's only charged on the part of your estate that's above the threshold.

For example:

Your estate is worth £500,000 and your tax-free threshold is £325,000. The Inheritance Tax charged will be 40% of £175,000 (£500,000 minus £325,000).

Who pays Inheritance Tax?

- Funds from an estate are used to pay Inheritance Tax to HM Revenue and Customs (HMRC). This is done by the person dealing with the estate (called the 'executor', if there's a will).
- Beneficiaries generally don't pay tax on things they inherit. They may have related taxes to pay, for example, if they get rental income from a house left to them in a will.
