Denver Other Stories:

My Bad Manuel Ramos, 2016-09-30 Ex con Gus Corral is fresh out of jail and intent on keeping his nose clean He s living in his sister s basement which he shares with a cat or two Corrine s CDs and their father s record collection The blues music in particular strikes a chord matching the way he feels about his current state Things start to look up when Gus gets a job working as an investigator for his attorney Luis Montez An activist in the Chicano Movement of the 1960s and 1970s Montez is slowing down and getting close to retirement and he figures the felon can do the legwork on his cases When Mar a Contreras comes to see the lawyer about her dead husband s business partner someone she has never heard of who s demanding his share of the profits of a business she knew nothing about Montez has Gus look into the situation Narrating the story in alternating chapters Gus and Luis recount their run ins with suspicious characters as they learn that there s more to the case than meets the eye The widow s husband owned and operated a local bar not Aztl n Treasures a Mexican folk art import company And word on the street is that he was murdered on his boat in the Sea of Cortez Soon the dead bodies are piling up and the pair is surrounded by shadowy figures that point to money laundering drug smuggling and even Mexican crime cartels The follow up to Desperado Ramos first novel featuring Gus Corral My Bad races to a walloping conclusion in a Rocky Mountain blizzard leaving fans of crime novels and Chicano literature eagerly awaiting the next installment in his mile high noir Spectres from the Past Portia Owusu, 2019-11-22 Spectres from the Past The History of Slavery in West African and African American Narratives examines the merit of the claim that West African writers in comparison to African Americans authors deliberately expunge the history of slavery from literary narratives The book explores slavery in contemporary West African and African American literature by looking at the politics of history and memory It interrogates notions of History and memory by considering the possibility that shared traumas such as West African and African American experiences of slavery can be remembered and historicised differently according to critical factors such as socio economic realities cultural beliefs and familial traditions At the heart of the book are compelling and new readings of slavery in six literary narratives that draws on cultural philosophies musicology and linguistics to demonstrate diverse and unusual ways that Black writers in West Africa and North America write about slavery in literature

Race, Trauma, and Home in the Novels of Toni Morrison Evelyn Jaffe Schreiber, 2010-12-01 In this first interdisciplinary study of all nine of Nobel Laureate Toni Morrison s novels Evelyn Jaffe Schreiber investigates how the communal and personal trauma of slavery embedded in the bodies and minds of its victims lives on through successive generations of African Americans Approaching trauma from several cutting edge theoretical perspectives psychoanalytic neurobiological and cultural and social theories Schreiber analyzes the lasting effects of slavery as depicted in Morrison s work and considers the almost insurmountable task of recovering from trauma to gain subjectivity With an innovative application of neuroscience to literary criticism Schreiber explains how trauma whether initiated by physical abuse dehumanization discrimination exclusion or abandonment becomes embedded in both psychic and bodily circuits Slavery and its legacy of cultural rejection create trauma on individual familial and community levels and parents unwittingly transmit their trauma to their children through repetition of their bodily stored experiences Concepts of home whether a physical place community or relationship are reconstructed through memory to provide a positive self and serve as a healing space for Morrison s characters Remembering and retelling trauma within a supportive community enables trauma victims to move forward and attain a meaningful subjectivity and selfhood Through careful analysis of each novel Schreiber traces the success or failure of Morrison s characters to build or rebuild a cohesive self starting with slavery and the initial postslavery generation and continuing through the twentieth century with a special focus on the effects of inherited trauma on children When characters attempt to escape trauma through physical relocation or to project their pain onto others through aggressive behavior or scapegoating the development of selfhood falters Only when trauma is confronted through verbalization and challenged with reparative images of home can memories of a positive self overcome the pain of past experiences and cultural rejection While the cultural trauma of slavery can never truly disappear Schreiber argues that memories that reconstruct a positive self whether created by people relationships a physical place or a concept help Morrison s characters to establish subjectivity A groundbreaking interdisciplinary work Schreiber s book unites psychoanalytic neurobiological and social theories into a full and richly textured analysis of trauma and the possibility of healing in Morrison s novels
