The School Health Nursing Program

Table of Contents

III. Vision Testing

The holistic approach to strengthen health and nutrition is attained through the Redesigned Approach in School Health Nursing (RASHN) officially adopted through DECS Memorandum No. 37, series 1991. This is restricted procedure in providing school health nursing services with a considerable length of time spent for the activities done in a package during the school visits of the nurse. The RASHN is based on the philosophy that the academic performance of the pupils and the instructional outcomes are determined by the quality of health of the school population and the community where they come from.

General Objective:

Provide quality nursing service and education to develop the child physically, mentally, socially and spiritually healthy to become a productive, self-reliant and responsible member of society.

Specific Objectives:

Detect early signs and symptoms of illness/disabilities and deviations from normal;
Provide preventive and remedial measure, for simple and common ailments among the school population;
Coordinate with other health personnel, the translation of scientific knowledge to desirable health behavior;
Participate in the dissemination of health messages to teachers and pupils;
Create awareness among school children, personnel and administrators on the importance of health and safety.
Monitor the implementation of the standards of school health nursing program relative to the school plant;
Establish/Strengthen linkages with government and non-government organization for school-community health work;
Encourage the provision of needed health facilities;
Utilize tried and tested medicinal plants for the treatment of common ailments;
Provide opportunities for research and studies on health related concerns.

Policies and Guidelines:

All newly appointed school nurses shall undergo orientation/ in-service training.
The Nurse-in-charge shall conduct the orientation/in-service training with practicum at the regional/division level in coordination with the regional and the division medical officer from one to two weeks.

Vacancies for the school nurses shall be immediately filled up.

Applicants must satisfactorily meet the requirements contained in the Qualification Standards Manual.

Regional/Division Medical Officer/Nurse-In-Charge shall assist the Schools Division

Superintendent in the selection of the applicants.

Position of school nurses who are on leave without pay shall be filled up as soon as possible until incumbent reinstates.

School nurses shall upgrade their professional preparation.

They shall be encouraged to take Graduate Studies in public health/school nursing.
