

Describe a Person You Admire

I take pride in saying I admire my mother the most in my family. My Mother. She is like The Sun in the Solar system and all the rest of the family are like planets revolving around the Sun. She is very affectionate, kind, caring, loving, compassionate, and ready to solve our problems. She has been acting like a buffer between, my father who was a strict disciplinarian and the rest of the family, grandparents and the grandchildren, elders in the family and newcomers to the family.

She is up early in the morning even before the first rays of light brighten the sky, does the days chores with such perfection that nothing is amiss. Every action of hers reflects her love and affection for each and every member of the family. She goes to bed after everyone in the family is in bed. She is a friend, philosopher and a mentor for all of us in the family. She instills tremendous amount of courage and confidence in us that any task is like a child's play to us.

When she is around we can be rest assured that everything will be fine. There is so much anyone can learn from her. She is polite at the same time firm. She is very soft at the same time tough inside. For all that she is I not only admire her but also envy her. I wish I had the same kind of patience, capability of handling any situation, compassion, more than everything the rapport she enjoys with everyone in the family. I wish I will be like her and earn appreciation from all.
