Design Noir The Secret Life Of Electronic Objects:

Design Noir Anthony Dunne, Fiona Raby, 2001 Dunne and Raby investigate the real physical and cultural effects of the digital domain demonstrating that mobile phones computers and other electronic objects such as televisions profoundly influence people's experience of their environment Their ideas have important implications for architecture and design In this their first major book they introduce their extraordinary new way of thinking about objects space and behaviour to a broad audience The book is divided into three sections 1 Manifesto introducing the authors ideas about electromagnetic space 2 Conversations in which Dunne and Raby talk to a variety of designers architects and artists about the impact electronic technology has on their practice 3 Placebo presenting the intriguing results of a project involving Dunne and Raby's working furniture prototypes including a chair that lets the sitter know when radiation is passing through his body

Design Noir Anthony Dunne, Fiona Raby, 2001 The first book to be published on the work of their partnership in 2001 Design Noir is the essential primary source for understanding the theoretical and conceptual underpinnings for Dunne's notes for an embryonic network of critical designers and most famously the presentation of the Placebo Project a prototype for a critical design poetics enacted around electronic furniture objects Design Noir offers an in depth exploration of one of the most seminal design projects of the last two decades one that arguably initiated speculating through design in its contemporary forms By detailing the logic and character of the objects that were constructed the involvement of users with these objects over time and in the creation of a new kind of spatially and temporally distributed moments of critique and engagement with things Design Noir presents the case study of the Placebo project as a far more complex and subtler project than is often thought As a bold and in many ways unprecedented experiment in design writing and book designing Design Noir is itself an instance of the speculative propositional design it expounds

Design Noir Anthony Dunne, Fiona Raby, 2001 Emotionally Durable Design Jonathan Chapman, 2012-04-27 This book is a call to arms for professionals students and academic creatives proposing the emergence of a new genre of sustainable design that reduces consumption and waste by increasing the durability of relationships established between users and products Chapman pioneers a radical design about face to reduce the impact of modern consumption without compromising commercial or creative edge The author explores the essential question why do users discard products that still work It transports the reader beyond symptom focused approaches to sustainable design such as recycling biodegradability and disassembly to address the actual causes that underpin the environmental crisis we face The result is a revealing exploration of consumer psychology the deep motivations that fuel the human condition and a rich treasure of creative strategies that will enable designers from a range of disciplines to explore new ways of thinking and designing of objects capable of supporting deeper and more meaningful relationships with their users Drifting by Intention Peter Gall Krogh, Ilpo Koskinen, 2020-03-11 Constructive design research is an exploratory endeavor building exemplars arguments and evidence In this monograph it is shown how acts of designing builds relevance and articulates knowledge in combination Using design acts to build new knowledge invite reframing of questions and new perceptions to build up Respecting the emergence of new knowledge in the process invite change of cause and action The authors term for this change is drifting designers drift and they drift intentionally knowing what they do The book details how drifting is a methodic practice of its own and provides examples of how and where it happens This volume explores how to do it effectively and how it depends on the concept of knowledge The authors identify four epistemic traditions in constructive design research By introducing a Knowledge Relevance model they clarify how design experiments create knowledge and what kinds of challenges and contributions designers face when drifting Along the lines of experimental design work the authors identify five main ways in which constructive experiments drift Only one of them borrows its practices from experimental science others build on precedents including arts and craft practices As the book reveals constructive design research builds on a rich body of research that finds its origins in some of the most important intellectual movements of 20th century This background further expands constructive design research from a scientific model towards a more welcoming understanding of research and knowledge This monograph provides novel actionable models for steering and navigating processes of constructive design research It helps skill the design researcher in participating in the general language games of research and helps the design researcher build research relations beyond the discipline

Moving Objects Damon Taylor, 2020-09-17 Moving Objects deals with emotive design designed objects that demand to be engaged with rather than simply used If postmodernism depended upon ironic distance and Critical Design is all about questions then emotive design runs hotter than this confronting how designers are using feelings in what they make Damon Taylor's original study considers these emotionally laden highly authored works often produced in limited editions and sold like art objects such as a chair made from cuddly toys a leather sofa that resembles a cow and a jewellery box fashioned from human hair Tracing the phenomenon back to the Dutch inflection that began with Droog designers like Jurgen Bey and Hella Jongerius Taylor conducts an analysis of the development of Design Art and looks for its origins in the uncanny explorations of surrealism Offering a critique of Speculative Design and an examination of the work of designers such as Mathias Bengtsson whose work involves growing furniture inside computers Taylor asks what happens when the tangible melts into the datascape and design becomes a question of mobilities In this way Moving Objects examines contemporary issues of how we live with artefacts and what design can do

Frieze, 2002 Design Issues, 2018 The first American academic journal to examine design history theory and criticism Design Issues provokes inquiry into the cultural and intellectual issues surrounding design Regular features include theoretical and critical articles by professional and scholarly contributors extensive book reviews illustrations and a section for reader response Special issues concentrate on particular themes such as artificial intelligence product seminars design in Asia and design education Conference Proceedings, 2004 Sketching User Experiences: Getting the Design Right and the Right Design William

Buxton, 2007-04-10 Speaking to the HCI community and other design professionals this work is grounded in both practice and scientific research It encourages designers to try new methods test themselves with the exercises and projects and see an improvement in innovative interaction design that works Digital By Design Conny Freyer, Sebastien Noel, Eva Rucki, Troika (Firm), 2008 Digital by Design is a wide ranging survey that considers the work of those visionaries who are reimagining the relationship between technology design products immersive environments and human interaction for the twenty first century The result is a captivating assessment of pioneering approaches in art and design that encompasses a broad spectrum of humanist values humour magic and sensory experiences Leading multi disciplinary art and design practice Troika has selected more than 100 objects products and installations that exemplify this progressive new wave of technologically infused art and design The book's bold presentation is indicative of Troika's hands on knowledge of these fields and their transformative practices BOOK JACKET Design Dispersed Burcu Dogramaci, Kerstin Pinther, 2019 Design Dispersed pursues the complex and heterogeneous connections between migration and design in the 20th and 21st centuries The edited volume gathers contributions by international researchers and curators on the question of how design practices and historical objects articulate respond to and critically reflect on migration flight and displacement Besides a collage which highlights the aesthetic effects resulting from the networking overlapping and mixing of forms another strand of the book looks at the political and social dimensions of design How are design objects material modes of a critical inquiry on movements of people and things What role do object trajectories play in the migr movements of the 1930s and 1940s Other texts follow the question of how migrants and refugees form their experience and political fight for acceptance into design and architectural productions A final essay contributes to wordings and projections what vocabulary do we need in order to adequately think and write about a design dispersed Art and wireless communication Katja Kwastek, 2004 Strangely Familiar Andrew Blauvelt, 2003 This book features over forty innovative projects from the fields of architectural product furniture fashion and graphic design It includes essays on the tactics of formlessness and its impact on everyday consumption Blueprint, 2002 Now is the Time Terry Eagleton, 2009 Anthology of essays about seven pressing social and art specific themes that encompass the full scope of the force field of the visual arts Renowned international theorists and promising young art critics and curators share their visions on a range of issues in accessible essays What is the impact of 9 11 on our visual culture and the visual arts What role does religion play in polarization What are the consequences of ongoing globalization for the visual arts How can we explain the revival of interest in canons and what function do they attribute to art These socially engaged themes are alternated with topics that are traditionally more rooted in art such as the return of Romanticism the relative novelty of new media in the post medium era and the utopian ideals of design With such a varied selection of subjects and authors the book builds a bridge between art and theory as well as between art and society at a level attuned to academic discourse yet at the same time accessible for a wide ranging public with an interest in art

The Furniture Machine Gareth Williams, 2006-10 When did sofas become so sexy and why Contemporary furniture design has enjoyed growing international popularity in the last fifteen years The Furniture Machine looks at the major trends and designers of this period including Philippe Starck Ron Arad and Marc Newson to unravel the workings of the furniture industry since 1990 Attention is also given to the innovations of Italian manufacturers such as Cappellini and B B Italia and the increasing influence of conceptual design from the theoretical proposals of Droog Design to the commercial products of Moooi

CHI ... Conference Proceedings, 2006

Obey the Giant Rick Poyner, 2001 Design critic Rick Poyner explores the thinking behind contemporary visual culture intriguing and fascinating appraisal In the twenty first century commerce and culture are ever more closely entwined This new collection of essays by design critic Rick Poyner takes a searching look at visual culture to discover the reality beneath the ultra seductive surfaces Poyner explores the thinking behind the emerging resistance to commercial rhetoric among designers and offers critical insights into the changing dialogue between advertising and design Other essays address the topics of visual journalism brands as religion the new solipsism graphic memes the pleasures of imperfect design and the poverty of cool Around the world many are now waking up to the dominance of huge corporations invariably expressed by visual means This pointed and provocative counterblast arrives at a moment when critical responses are vital if this mono culture is to be challenged It offers inspirational evidence of alternative ways of engaging with design and it will appeal to any reader with a questioning interest in design advertising cultural studies media studies and the visual arts

Designing Effective Communications Jorge Frascara, 2006 Groundbreaking ideas on how we communicate a message Considers messages conveyed through design clothing corporate logos signs teaching even space exploration Exciting for students and teachers of graphic arts and communication In the essays that make up Designing Effective Communications a diverse group of experts on communication design challenge the traditional the medium is the message theory They discuss the physical visual cognitive and cultural meanings of messages and look at how interpretation plays a fundamental role in the creation of meaning
