Dialogue Derailed Joseph Ratzinger S War Against Pluralist Theology:

Dialogue Derailed Ambrose Mong, 2014-11-17 Joseph Ratzinger has shaped and guided the church's understanding of its mission to proclaim the good news as well as to forge good relations with non-Catholic Christian communities, other religious traditions and the secular world at large. Through a critique of Ratzinger's theology, this book draws attention to the importance of theological discourses originating from non-European contexts. Mong highlights the gap between a dogmatic understanding of the faith and the pastoral realities of the Asian church, as well as the difficulties faced by Asian theologians trying to make their voices heard in a church still dominated by Western thinking. While Mong concurs with much of Ratzinger's analysis of the problems in modern society, such as the aggressive secularism and crisis of faith in Europe, he focuses attention on the realities of religious pluralism in Asia, which require the church to adopt a different approach in its theological formulations and pastoral practices.

Christianity in the Modern World Ambrose Mong, 2022-01-27 The influence of religion on culture is as strong as ever, but the shape of that influence is unique in today's pluralistic society. In Christianity in the Modern World, Ambrose Mong examines critically themes of religious commitment and tolerance attitudes towards other religions and the sociological aspects of religion and inter-religious dialogue. He provides an overview of factors that challenge traditional religion, from the relationship between monotheistic and polytheistic beliefs to the history of tolerance and intolerance in the church and the future of secularism. Following the global ethics formulated by the late Hans Kung, Mong also engages with the dialogue between Jürgen Habermas and Joseph Ratzinger to provide an extensive defence of the importance of inter-religious dialogue with particular relevance to multiple religious belonging in the Asian context. Scholars of world religions will find Mong's analysis compelling, while students will find his introduction to the historical dialectics underlying many of today's tensions illuminating.

Experience, Culture and Religion in Systematic Theology Edmond Zi-Kang Chua, 2023-01-01 Most systematicians take as their starting point the nature of God and scripture as the means by which God's nature is revealed, but what would a systematic theology look like that began with an experiential knowledge of God? Here Edmond Chua offers a method for just such an approach. Beginning with realms of human experience, including psychology, cultural diversity and religious plurality, he builds the framework of a systematic theology that is inclusive and pluriform while retaining the core tenets of a Christian doctrine of God. Notwithstanding his novel methodology, Chua's argument remains biblically rooted and appreciative of the Christian tradition. In the latter half of the book, he returns to the classical doctrines of the Trinity, Christology, evil, sin and salvation, allowing his inclusive view of the human religious experience to shed new light on the wisdom bequeathed by Paul, Augustine, Aquinas, Luther, Barth and others. The result is a bold Christian vision that is culturally engaged and globally applicable, of interest to systematic theologians while contributing to interreligious dialogue.

A Tale of Two Theologians

Ambrose Mong, 2017-03-31 In A Tale of Two Theologians Ambrose Mong s observant new work he examines the writings of the Peruvian theologian Gustavo Gutierrez and the Indian theologian Michael Amaladoss and gives fresh attention to their main concerns regarding evangelisation and the poor Why he asks is Gutierrez s liberation theology now accepted and celebrated by the Roman Catholic Church while Amaladoss s Asian theology with a liberation thrust is threatened with censorship Mong argues that the dwindling threat of Communism has made the Marxist overtones of Latin American liberation theology more palatable to the Catholic hierarchy while the challenge of religious pluralism in Asia is as complex and emotive as ever How can the Church learn to balance the need for dialogue between religions with their duty to proclaim the Gospel How can the Church inculturate itself in Asia while maintaining its identity Ambrose Mong tackles these questions with the shrewd clear eyed view of an active priest and scholar exploring the long troubled relationship the Church has with liberation theology and offering guidance for the future

Purification of Memory

Ambrose Mong, 2015-06-25 Although its various bodies boast a combined total of at least 300 million members the Eastern Orthodox Church is widely perceived among members of other denominations to be an exotic branch of the faith often shrouded in mysticism and misunderstanding that has been exacerbated by the longstanding Eastern Western split In Purification of Memory Ambrose Mong casts light on the true nature of Orthodox theology illuminating the thinking of eight distinguished modern Orthodox theologians who have made important contributions on topics as ecclesiology ecumenism Christology and Mariology Approaching the work of John Meyendorff Nicholas Afanasiev John Zizioulas Georges Florovsky Sergius Bulgakov Vladimir Lossky Nicolas Berdyaev and Jaroslav Pelikan from an ecumenical standpoint Mong deftly draws comparisons with the theology of their Roman Catholic counterparts to reveal points on which the two traditions have much more in common than either side will always admit The author interweaves these comparisons with a fascinating exposition of the history of the schism between the Eastern and Western Churches to demonstrate decisively that in spite of the bitter mistrust dividing them they share a common heritage which could and should serve as a basis for reunification Before old wounds can mend however a healing process of forgetting characterized by Pope John Paul II as a purification of memory must take place to clear the path towards a long awaited return to unity      Accommodation and Acceptance Ambrose Mong,2015-12-31 As Hans Kung said No peace among the nations without peace among the religions No peace among the religions without dialogue between the religions No dialogue between the religions without investigation of the foundations of the religions Accommodation and Acceptance is a crucial work in both promoting interreligious dialogue and exploring the turbulent history of Christian faith and identity in Asia down the years From the reaction to missions often inextricably linked with the practice of colonialism to the rise of religious pluralism Ambrose Mong examines the relationships between the leading faiths of Asia up to the present day Whether practicing pluralism or exclusivism the history of Christianity in Asia is long and fascinating AmbroseMong delves into the biography of intercultural pioneers like Matteo Ricci and Timothy Richard to understand better the theology as well as the pragmatism behind cultural accommodation and the necessary mutability of an eternal church      Guns and Gospel Ambrose Mong,2016-11-24 During the nineteenth century Christian missionaries vied for the Chinese souls they thought they were saving But many things held them back Western gunboat diplomacy unequal treaties and their own prejudices which increased hostility towards Christianity One more Christian one less Chinese has long been a popular cliché in China Guns and Gospel examines the accusation of cultural imperialism levelled against the missionaries and explores their complex and ambivalent relationships with the opium trade and British imperialism Ambrose Mong follows key figures among the missionaries such as Robert Morrison Charles Gutzlaff James Hudson Taylor and Timothy Richard uncovering why some succeeded where others failed and asks whether they really became lackeys to imperialism      A Better World Is Possible Ambrose Mong,2018-10-25 Paradise has been widely perceived as somewhere on ocean islands or in distant mountains where people come together to set up tightly knit societies so they can live work and worship in harmony and peace For the first time ever in this widely researched work that bridges the utopian ideas and visions of East and West Ambrose Mong explores the writings of influential thinkers from ancient China to Renaissance Europe and today including Thomas More Teilhard de Chardin Confucius and Mo Tzu and even twentieth century political reformist Kang Youwei      Against Ratzinger Anonymous,Antony Shugaar,2008 A critique of the Pope s arguments and beliefs examines his speeches and writings analyzes his views on such subjects as birth control abortion and sexual abuse in the Church and tracks his rise to his current position
