Tong, 2020-06-01 In the 18th and 19th centuries relations between China and the West were defined by the Qing dynasty's strict restrictions on foreign access and by the West's imperial ambitions Cultural political and economic interactions were often fraught with suspicion and misunderstanding on both sides Yet trade flourished and there were instances of cultural exchange and friendship running counter to the official narrative Tribute and Trade China and Global Modernity explores encounters between China and the West during this period and beyond into the early 20th century through examples drawn from art literature science politics music cooking clothing and more How did China and the West see each other how did they influence each other and what were the lasting legacies of this contact Creating Romantic Obsession Kathleen Béres Rogers, 2019-03-29 Most of us have at one time been obsessed with something but how did obsession become a mental illness This book examines literary medical and philosophical texts to argue that what we call obsession became a disease in the Romantic era and reflects the era's anxieties Using a number of literary texts some well known like Mary Shelley's 1818 Frankenstein and Edgar Allan Poe's 1843 The Tell Tale Heart and some not like Charlotte Dacre's 1811 The Passions and Charles Brockden Brown's 1787 Edgar Huntly the book looks at vigilia an overly intense curiosity intellectual monomania an obsession with study nymphomania and erotomania gendered forms of desire revolutiana an obsession with sublime violence and military service and ideality an obsession with an idea The coda argues that traces of these Romantic constructs can be seen in popular accounts of obsession today Report of the Director General on the Activities of the Organisation in ...
