Photojournalism and Citizen Journalism Stuart Allan, 2017-06-26 If everyone with a smartphone can be a citizen photojournalist who needs professional photojournalism This rather flippant question cuts to the heart of a set of pressing issues where an array of impassioned voices may be heard in vigorous debate While some of these voices are confidently predicting photojournalism s impending demise as the latest casualty of internet driven convergence others are heralding its dramatic rebirth pointing to the democratisation of what was once the exclusive domain of the professional Regardless of where one is situated in relation to these stark polarities however it is readily apparent that photojournalism is being decisively transformed across shifting uneven conditions for civic participation in ways that raise important questions for journalism's forms and practices in a digital era. This book's contributors identify and critique a range of factors currently recasting photojournalism's professional ethos, devoting particular attention to the challenges posed by the rise of citizen journalism. This book was originally published as two special issues in Digital Journalism and Journalism Practice.

Text/Image Mosaics in French Culture Laurence Grove, 2017-03-02. This study compares text-image interaction as manifested in emblem books and related forms and the modern bande dessinée or French language comic strip. It moves beyond the issue of defining the emblematic genre to examine the ways in which emblems and their modern counterparts interact with the surrounding culture and what they disclose about that culture. Drawing largely on primary material from the Bibliothèque nationale de France and from Glasgow University Library's Stirling Maxwell Collection of emblem literature, Laurence Grove builds on the ideas of Marshall McLuhan, Elizabeth Eisenstein, and more recently Neil Rhodes and Jonathan Sawday. Divided into four sections: Theoretics, Production, Thematics, and Reception, Text/Image Mosaics in French Culture broaches topics such as theoretical approaches, past and present, to text-image forms, the question of narrative within the scope of text-image creations, and the reuse of visual iconography for diametrically opposed political or religious purposes. The author argues that despite the gap in time between the advent of emblems and that of comic strips, the two forms are analogous in that both are the products of a parallel mentality. The mindsets of the periods that popularised these forms have certain common features related to repeated social conditions rather than to the pure evolution over time. Grove's analysis and historical contextualisation of that mentality provide insight into our own popular culture forms: not only the comic strip but also other hybrid media such as advertising and the Internet. His juxtaposition of emblems and the bande dessinée increases our understanding of all such combinations of picture and text.

La Communication audio-visuelle : entre réalité et fiction Annabelle Klein, Axel Tixhon, 2009-12. En quoi la mise en forme audio-visuelle interfère-t-elle sur les contenus, leur perception, leur interprétation? Comment notre rapport au réel se trouve-t-il affecté? Quelles clés s'offrent au spectateur pour décoder ce qu'il voit et entend? Comment représente-t-on ce que nous sommes face à une fiction? L'un des traits marquants de la critique audio-visuelle actuelle est le déplacement des frontières entre le réel et la fiction. On voit des créations fictionnelles utilisant des traits caractéristiques du documentaire et inversement des documentaires largement mis en scène. Les différents genres audio-visuels se tlescopent, n cessitant de nouveaux outils pour les aborder. Travers cet ouvrage collectif des spécialistes de la communication, des sociologues, des médias et des historiens, proposent un croisement de regards disciplinaires favorisant la réflexion critique sur l'évolution de l'audio-visuel et l'acquisition de nouveaux outils de compréhension. Cet ouvrage d'édification aux médias s'adresse aux enseignants, aux étudiants ou toute personne qui souhaite s'initier au monde médiatique et comprendre les spécificités de l'audio-visuel. Auteurs: Charles Angelroth, Jean-Benoît Gabriel, Annabelle Klein, Emmanuel Murhula, Bénédicte Rochet, Anne Roekens, Sarah Sepulchre, Jonathan Thonon, Axel Tixhon.
