PERSONNEL BULLETIN 23-03

SUBJECT: Supporting Gender Transition in the Federal Workplace

1. PURPOSE: It is the policy of the Federal Government and the Department of the Interior (DOI or Department) to treat all of its employees with dignity and respect and to provide a workplace that is free from discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy, sexual orientation, or gender identity), national origin, disability, age, or reprisal.

The purpose of this policy is to ensure that all employees are treated in a professional and respectful manner including individuals who are transitioning or have transitioned, as well as those who are gender nonconforming and/or non-binary who seek to legally, medically, socially, and/or physically transition or expand their gender identity. An individual's gender identity and gender transition are inherently personal matters. Some individuals may request workplace assistance or changes, whereas others will seek no workplace acknowledgement or changes at all. Accordingly, this policy does not anticipate every workplace situation that might arise, and the needs of an individual employee should be addressed on a case-by-case basis as requested by an employee. This policy addresses some of the most common changes and questions that may arise during gender transition and provides guidance on appropriate handling of transition-related needs. This Personnel Bulletin (PB) supersedes PB 13-03, Transgender and Other Gender Non-Conforming Employee Policy, dated April 10, 2013. This document remains in effect until either rescinded or superseded by a new Departmental policy.

This policy is not intended to, and does not create any right or benefit, substantive or procedural, enforceable at law or equity by a party against the United States, its departments, agencies, instrumentalities or entities, its officers or employees, or any other person.
