Turgeon, 2023-02-27 The joining of two individuals through the act of marriage is a beautiful ceremony But because of Adam and Eve's disobedience sin has marred every aspect of our lives What are we to do when facing hard seasons in our marriages How are we to respond to our husband's sins or shortcomings The Bible does not leave us alone in these struggles The answer is found in the Person of Jesus Christ and His teachings through the Word of God Want to become a strong and immovable wife One that stands unshakeably on the promises of God Join me as I share what God has done in my life and marriage and how He can transform you as well Cast It Out Greg Locke, 2023-08-29 If Jesus spent one third of His ministry casting out demons why do so many churches virtually ignore deliverance By reading this book I will understand the purpose behind casting out demonic entities and why all Christians are called to help set the captives free For years Baptist pastor Greg Locke believed deliverance ministry and supernatural signs and wonders were just hyped up charismaniac nonsense But then God removed his denominational lenses and showed him what the Bible actually says about the gifts of the Holy Spirit and his life and ministry haven't been the same Suddenly people started getting healed in his services Miracles and wonders abounded And Locke was casting out demons in Sunday services that lasted until 2:30 the next morning Today the firebrand preacher is well known for his popular documentary Come Out in Jesus Name and teaches others how to help people get free of demonic oppression In Cast It Out the third book in his Spiritual Warfare Series Locke testifies of what the

Lord has done in his life and ministry and shares the biblical truth and inspired revelations God used to erase all his doubts about the supernatural work of the Holy Spirit In what he considers his most important work yet Locke addresses What the Bible says about deliverance Whether Christians can be demonized Popular objections to deliverance ministry How Jesus dealt with demons Locke believes the church is on the cusp of the most important spiritual awakening in the history of Christianity and we must all be prepared to engage in what Jesus spent one third of His ministry doing casting out demons In this book he offers biblical answers to the most pressing deliverance questions and equips readers to help others find true freedom and healing in Christ

Exorcism and Deliverance Ministry in the Twentieth Century James Michael Collins, 2009 This study seeks to demonstrate that exorcism deliverance ministry is an innately enthusiastic practice utilising Knox's classic study of Christian enthusiasm The twentieth century provides an ideal arena for such a study since it frames a complete lifecycle for this rite from its infancy during the early decades through its heyday in the 1970s and 80s on to creeping routinisation by the end of the century Two enthusiastic settings Charismatic and Evangelical Fundamentalist are identified and examined as the environment in which two related streams of exorcism deliverance ministry was practised Finally enthusiastic Sacramentalist exorcism is considered in order to establish the thesis that enthusiastic settings provide a conducive atmosphere for the emergence and practice of exorcism deliverance ministry Attention is paid to historical factors within the Charismatic and Evangelical Fundamentalist streams that underlie the development of this rite As a result important secondary insights are gained into the tidal nature of enthusiastic movements the role of itinerant preachers in the propagation of enthusiasm the routinisation of enthusiastic practices and the manner in which enthusiasm overcomes institutional denominational boundaries The study provides the foundation for future investigation of the manner in which enthusiastic experience is presented for apologetic purposes the relationship between exorcism deliverance ministry and millenarianism and the practice of this rite within non Western churches James Collins is currently the pastor of Redhill Baptist Church having previously served congregations in Gold Hill Chalfont St Peter and Morden Park He holds degrees in Information Management and Theology and a doctorate from London School of Theology and has lectured in Church History and the Sociology of Religion at the London School of Theology He is married to Naomi and has two children Katie and Michael and avidly supports Watford Football Club

Ghana's New Christianity Paul Gifford, 2004 In sub Saharan Africa over the last two decades there has been an explosion of Christianity This book sets out to identify its particular character focusing on a particular place Greater Accra the capital of Ghana Paul Gifford examines a wide range of Accra's new churches giving priority to mega churches Every dimension discourse theological vision worship rituals music media involvement use of the Bible conventions finances clientele is analysed Gifford argues that this Christianity is not otherworldly its emphasis is on success achievement wealth here and now Yet within this general orientation there is diversity At one end of the spectrum are churches that building on the traditional religious imagination see demonic forces everywhere blocking personal success In the churches the key factor is the special man of God who is understood to have the anointing to conquer these forces to reverse the curse that is holding the believer back At the other end is a strain of this new Christianity that discounts spiritual forces and sees victory resulting from the believer s own education and skills and from transforming culture The book also joins the debate over the role of this Christianity in modernizing economic and political structures It sets the scene by describing Ghana s political and economic situation in the decades when these churches were proliferating and outlines the current debate on the reasons for Africa s economic plight It is argued that although focusing on success and wealth can provide motivation in circumstances where it is so easy to despair the pervasive emphasis on miracles militates against any natural fostering of a new work ethic As for their political role some churches are easily co opted others challenge the government but for spiritual reasons that provide little incentive to grapple with issues of governance by contrast Gifford finds one important church encouraging change of the entire political culture No other book has set forth the complex nature of Africa s new Christianity with such clarity or offered such a searching analysis of its power to tackle Africa s predicament
