Des Frogs Chez Les Rosbeefs:

Tell-Tales Various, 2015-03-28 Every person has a tale to tell a short story in them a glimpse into someone else's life and the things that have happened to them Everyone has a voice but not everyone has the courage to use it to tell their tales with honesty and conviction We found our voices over coffee and treats at Libby's in Marple Bridge one dismal Wednesday morning in January An idea was formed when a group of like minded women friends decided to try to write some of these stories down to raise money for The Christie Hospital in Manchester None of us has made any money from the writing of these stories Sounds easy doesn't it The first part perhaps the most difficult part was finding what to write about experimenting with rhythm style tone and words to express our stories in a way we hoped would be of interest to someone else But as our confidence increased and we bounced stories and ideas around between each other writing and rewriting we discovered that we liked the sound of our own voices So here are our offerings We hope you will enjoy them read them and hopefully return to them occasionally We hope to entertain you and to make you reflect on your own lives and experiences as you share ours Sally Clegg Sharon Goddard Joint Editors Fiction is the art of the possible of making imaginary words real of being able if only in a limited word count to put this world to rights The best fiction is challenging and yet familiar complex and yet sure of itself able to disrupt or ruffle but able also to smooth out differences to restore to heal The stories in Tell Tales know a thing or two about the challenges of living and how they are to be overcome by generosity attention and good faith The stories presented here anonymously in a spirit of inclusiveness all too rarely encountered speak to lives that are knotty and difficult and at times impossible as all our lives frequently are They are sharp and clever funny and kind So is the project All proceeds from the sale of this anthology go to the Christie Hospital which does such excellent work in caring for those who most need our care I am happy to support this book and I urge you to buy it for yourself and for everyone you know to take heart from its big heart and to enjoy it as I have done Vona Groarke Senior Lecturer in Creative Writing University of Manchester
