BNA's Americans with Disabilities Act Manual ,2010 Healthcare Information Needs of the Visually Impaired. Bridging the Visual Impairment Digital Disability Divide Fissha SeyoumTeshome,2017-06-08 Master s Thesis from the year 2017 in the subject Computer Science Internet New Technologies grade 4 language English abstract The focus of this research is to develop an understanding of how visually impaired people face a digital disability divide The scope of this research is limited to people with visual impairments who may or may not have access to technology The research shows how to bridge the divide while exploring relevant topics that lead to the conception of feasible solutions Further it will contribute to the development of more socially inclusive healthcare information systems The research is supported by a thorough literature review of articles journals and research reports dealing with the major relevant topics A qualitative research method was used to identify and obtain an in depth understanding of the healthcare information accessibility HCIA barriers that visually impaired people face and the factors involved in the creation of these barriers Moreover a quantitative method was used to collect primary data and a number of different analysis methods were used to produce results This led to findings that were generalized to the larger population of the visually impaired The research shows that despite the staggering advances in information and communication technology ICT the healthcare information needs of the visually impaired are not being met However it has also been discovered that the digital divide caused by visual impairment can be mitigated with intelligent design and the realization of information systems intended to fulfill the healthcare information needs of the visually impaired A logical information system is needed that has a combination of input back end and output assistive technologies with increased social inclusion and the capability to empower visually impaired people and help them access available healthcare information
