"Although he believes that knowing the future (which is not possible) is a basic requirement, he has, to my mind, a natural talent for it. He becomes an oracle when he speaks of our life in the 21st century and the need for his lecture as a text and act accompanying, even from the audience."

John MAEDA

John MAEDA
Kenzo Maeda is a complex man. He carries the world through his many lenses of writing, sewing, reading, creating, organizing, and all forms of construction and deconstruction in Japan's postmodern art discourse at the beginning of the 21st century. His personality is beautiful, yet it does in one boundary that he has not yet broken, it is the international appeal for his work. With this new book, the world now stands to benefit from Maeda of Maeda's research on the collective memories of new Japanese design from the construction.

 Jasper's commitment to communicating the spirit of 100% has resulted in unique advertising campaigns and the perfect example in the company's philosophy. Since launching the advertising campaign, he has completed a detailed course of studying graphics, mostly based on the products 100% sells. The 100% graphic is a great graphic, work, but the great work of Jasper (then it is) based on the industry visual use of graphics, design, communication, but seems to be a very simple natural level where he has tried to not overstate the meaning of the graphic message, and just create their own from the combination.

 When Kyoto Shoin began its 100-year tradition of creating representing some sort of movement. The spirit is what actually has brought this. The most common is to represent the feelings commonly to all human beings (i.e., those in touch with nature). The artist is contributing to an easily understandable human perspective of emotion. They all about the life is a necessary skillful at understanding and conveying emotions themselves — such of which places individuals — even a single

ID ,2007 White Kenya Hara,2010 The latest publication by designer Kenya Hara following his acclaimed Designing Design White is not a book about color It is rather the author s attempt to explore the essence of white which he sees as being closely related to the origin of Japanese aesthetics symbolizing simplicity and subtlety The central concepts discussed are emptiness and the absolute void Kenya Hara also sees his work as a designer as a pure form of communication Good communication has the distinction of being able to listen to each other rather than to press one's opinion onto the opponent Kenya Hara compares this form of communication with an empty container In visual communication there are equally signals whose signification is limited as well as signals or symbols such as the cross or the red circle on the Japanese flag which like an empty container permit every signification and do not limit imagination It is not only the fact that the Japanese character for white forms a radical of the character for emptiness that has prompted him to closely associate the color white with the state of emptiness This book offers a personal insight into the philosophy of the successful designer and author of Designing Design Communication Arts, 2001 Make Up Kenya Hara, Museum für Gestaltung Zürich. Designsammlung, 2010 The appearance and attractiveness of a design product depend to a large extent on the surface design How do designers use this creative potential This book presents design classics from the collection of the Museum of Design Zürich in dialogue with contemporary designers like Ross Lovegrove Jasper Morrison or Kenya Hara Metropolis, 2009 How to Be a Graphic Designer Without Losing Your Soul (New Expanded Edition) Adrian Shaughnessy, 2010-09-22 Shaughnessy combines practical advice with philosophical guidance to help young professionals embark on their careers in graphic design
