Rethinking the Asian Language Learning Paradigm in Australia Kayoko

Hashimoto,2024-11-21 This edited book calls for a rethink of the current Asian language learning paradigm that frames Asian languages as strategic and economic tools rather than an inherent part of Australian society As an increasing number of Australians have Asian ancestry and speak languages other than English at home it argues that we must reset the paradigm and understand Asian languages as intrinsically Australian to maximise existing linguistic and cultural assets The interdisciplinary chapters focusing on Japanese Chinese Korean and Vietnamese report on the state of Asian language learning and teaching in mainstream educational settings as well as heritage language education in informal contexts in Australia With an additional chapter on implications for other Anglophone countries this volume urges a transformative approach to Asian language education in the context of current global migration and multilingual demographics in order to nurture global citizenship and honour linguistic diversity The book will be suitable for academics policy makers practitioners and teachers
