Dialogue With An Angel The Spirit Of Love:

Dialogue with an Angel the Spirit of Love Friedhelm Hermesmann, 2014-10-29 Harry is living a life many dream of but few achieve He is a wealthy individual who is obsessed with making money at all cost His wife Beatrice while initially intrigued by the ambition of her husband to provide her with a good upper middleclass life style is after 15 years of marriage confronted with the reality that her marriage is slowly falling apart because of different expectations lack of communication understanding and common ground Through the prayers of their son Charles who is handicapped Harry meets an angel on the road to Whistler whom he thought initially to be a Hell s Angel but is in fact a Heaven s Angel sent to him by God The angel s name is Longinus who was in his earthly life a Roman soldier who participated in the crucifixion of Jesus and ensured that he died on the cross Thus he is a witness to the crucifixion Both Harry and Longinus agree to a dialogue about what is really important in life It is not money but love as expressed in the relationship between husband and wife but also in the relationship to God a God who is holy which means perfectly good and perfect love Dying to self. (The spirit of love.

Pt.2. 3rd dialogue). With notes by A. Murray William Law, 1898 Dialogues of Love and Government Alice Spencer, 2009-03-26 Dialogues of Love and Government examines the use of the pseudo Boethian didactic dialogue form in a wide range of Medieval texts on the theme of love by authors including Machaut Froissart Dante Chaucer Gower Usk and Hoccleve Although the broad almost universal influence of Boethius in the Middle Ages has been much documented the present study can be said to break new ground on several fronts Firstly whereas scholars have so far tended to focus on the visionary Apocalyptic conventions deployed in the Consolatio and or its stoical conclusions this is the first study to examine the influence of the text qua philosophical dialogue Secondly Dialogues of Love and Government contains the first thorough exploration of the recurrent binding together of the dialogue form with the courtly love theme in the Middle Ages proposing a theory that the origins of such a connection might be traced back to the ancient association between Socratic Platonic elenchus and the spirit Eros Finally it analyses the political implications of this relationship suggesting that the vertical trajectory of the erotic dialogue with its abstraction away from the many to the one naturally lends itself to the elitism and absolutism of Platonic politics The frequent ambiguity and irony of courtly love dialogues the fact that dialogism to borrow a term from Bakhtin is rarely fully overcome can thus be read as implying scepticism about or even an outright rejection of notions of love and politics which are Platonic in origin The inquiries of Ramchandra, or Dialogues with a Hindu theist on the Christian religion, by an Indian bishop Ramchandra (fict.name.), 1882 Annual Festival of the Worcester County she received from God are as much for us as they were for Catherine We can read God's communications to his beloved daughter with detached awe or we can receive His messages to us through her writings Do you long for certainty that Divine Providence exists in the midst of our chaotic world Does your prayer seem too dry or too routine Have you sought guidance for the challenges of your life from unhelpful people or things Or has pride kept you from humble obedience to the Church If so The Dialogue will provide consolation encouragement and hope Early Modern Women in Conversation K.
