

Senior English – Autobiography This is Your Life

ASSIGNMENT DESCRIPTION

Writing an autobiography can help you take a close look at the patterns of your personal development and clarify your personal values. Portions of the autobiography will be assigned at various times throughout the year. The finished product will provide you with an exciting self-portrait.

Your autobiography will present a portrait of your life, from before your birth until now. As you work on this project throughout the year, you will be writing about many different topics.

CHAPTERS AND TIME LINE

The autobiography will contain eight chapters when the project is completed:

1. Birth, Early Childhood, and Family – September 23
2. Education – October 28
3. People and Friends – November 25
4. Likes and Dislikes – December 16
5. Successes and Failures – January 20
6. Career Plans – February 18
7. Feelings and Beliefs – March 10
8. Reflections of the Past and Hopes for the Future – April 14

Book due with all corrections made – May 1

Several written exercises will be assigned to help you frame the ideas for each chapter. Be sure that you express answers to all questions in complete thoughts. For example, suppose the exercise asks, "Which would you rather be? A.) an only child; B.) the youngest in the family; C.) the oldest in the family. Perhaps you might selected C as your answer. If you simply wrote "the oldest, when you read the autobiography later, you would have to ask "the oldest what?" A complete answer would be "I would rather be the oldest child in the family because the oldest gets more privileges."

Each exercise within a chapter is to be written as a separate paragraph. The paragraphs in a single chapter will follow each other on the same sheet of paper. If you want to use subtitles, that is great. All exercises must be typed unless otherwise indicated. Make sure you save all your chapters in at least two places, for example, your hard drive and a flash drive. I will be marking on your papers, and then you will revise each chapter. The final project will have no markings whatsoever on it. You will also need to decide how you are going to put your chapters together.

Grading – I will grade each chapter according to the six traits of writing.
