

Brave New World: A Dialectical Journal

By: [Student Name]

Chapter and Page Number	Entry and Response Type
Chapter 1, Page 17 (Entry 1): "Waste and punishment, reward and positive reinforcement is the strict rule that keeps our society completely sound and orderly, founded upon the strictest of the laws of individual reinforcement applied individually. What machine could make a government perfect?"	Comment: I am 1.17. My thoughts and feelings about this chapter: John's world seems much more chaotic and less controlled than the world we live in today. It is a world of strict rules and regulations, where everything is controlled and managed. The world we live in today is a world of freedom and choice, where everything is up to us. I think the world in the book is a world of control and order, while the world we live in today is a world of chaos and disorder.
Chapter 1, Page 22 (Entry 2): "The only reason for the existence of the state is to maintain order and discipline. Without the state, there would be chaos and anarchy. The state is the only thing that can keep us from going mad and killing each other."	Question: I wonder how the state can keep us from going mad and killing each other. Is there something about the state that makes it so powerful? Or is it just a matter of force? I think the state is a necessary evil, but I wonder if there is a way to live without it.
Chapter 1, Page 23 (Entry 3): "I am 1.18. I am a member of the state."	Reflection: I think the state is a very important part of our lives. It is the only thing that can keep us from going mad and killing each other. I think the state is a necessary evil, but I wonder if there is a way to live without it. I think the state is a very important part of our lives, and I think we should be grateful for it.
Chapter 1, Page 25 (Entry 4): "I am 1.19. I am a member of the state."	Clarify + Predict: I think the state is a very important part of our lives. It is the only thing that can keep us from going mad and killing each other. I think the state is a necessary evil, but I wonder if there is a way to live without it. I think the state is a very important part of our lives, and I think we should be grateful for it.
