Christina Henry De Tesson, 2010 City Walks with Dogs New York Nadia Zonis, 2009 The Joy of New York Pere Ortís, 2017-10-03 Amid its impressive skyscrapers and massive avenues New York is a complex city that can be intimidating even to its longtime residents With that said it is a city that begs to be explored Pere Ortís relies on experiences gathered from his thirty years living in New York to share a travel guide that includes entertaining personal stories and historical facts Ortís leads visitors down a fascinating path where they learn about local landmarks like the Conference House on Staten Island that served as the stage for negotiations between the British and Americans after the Declaration of Independence in 1776 Saint Patrick's Cathedral where more than two thousand parishioners can worship within walls that hold incredible history and the Yorkville District where many still come to live in peace and prosper just as the German immigrants once did Included in his tour of the Big Apple is writings about the Brooklyn Bridge Chinatown and Little Italy the Metropolitan Museum of Art Times Square and many other local attractions The Joy of New York is a colorful collection of travel stories that offers tourists an in depth glimpse into the history and places that make the Big Apple one of the most interesting places to visit in the world The Publishers Weekly, 1898 Literature and Geography Emmanuelle Peraldo, 2016-01-14 In a period marked by the Spatial Turn time is not the main category of analysis any longer Space is It is now considered as a central metaphor and topos in literature and literary criticism has seized space as a new tool Similarly literature turns out to be an ideal field for geography This book examines the cross fertilization of geography and literature as disciplines languages and methodologies In the past two decades several methods of analysis focusing on the relationship and interconnectedness between literature and geography have flourished Literary cartography literary geography and geocriticism Westphal 2007 and Tally 2011 have their specificities but they all agree upon the omnipresence of space place and mapping at the core of analysis Other approaches like ecocriticism Buell 2001 and Garrard 2004 geopoetics White 1994 geography of literature Moretti 2000 studies of the inserted map Ljunberg 2012 and Pristnall and Cooper 2011 and narrative cartography have likewise drawn attention to space Literature and Geography The Writing of Space Throughout History following an international conference in Lyon bringing together literary academics geographers cartographers and architects in order to discuss literature and geography as two practices of space shows that literature along with geography is perfectly valid to account for space Suggestions are offered here from all disciplines on how to take into account representations and discourses since texts including literary ones have become increasingly present in the analysis of geographers
