

Causes of World War I DBQ

Background:

World War I, also known as the Great War, began in 1914 and involved many of the world's great powers, including Britain, France, Russia, Germany, and Austria-Hungary. The causes of World War I were complex, involving a mix of political, military, and social factors. Among these were nationalism, imperialism, militarism, and a tangled system of alliances that pulled many countries into conflict. The assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand of Austria-Hungary in June 1914 is often seen as the immediate trigger, but tensions had been building in Europe for years.
