Course Description

[Please include the Course Catalogue description, but consider adding your own "Welcome" and/or vision for the course.]

"Careful study and practice of critical thinking, reading, and expository writing techniques, using primarily nonfiction texts, and the frequent writing of compositions with the ultimate goal of writing an essay using sources. Prepares the student for English 1A and a variety of academic disciplines. Five hours of supplemental learning in a Success Center that supports this course are required." [Taken from the Chaffey College English 475 course description]. [Pre-requisites: English 575 or placement by assessment.]

Chaffey College Mission: Chaffey College inspires hope and success by improving lives and our community in a dynamic, supportive, and engaging environment of educational excellence, where our diverse students learn and benefit from foundation, career, and transfer programs. [Governing Board to approve new Mission Statement in 2016.]

Chaffey College Vision: "Improving lives through education." [Governing Board to approve new Vision Statement in 2016.]

Student Learning Outcomes & Course Objectives

[Please include the following SLOs and Objectives]

By the end of this course, you will be able to:

- Read critically to analyze and evaluate a variety of nonfiction texts and in a variety of disciplines. [SLO]
- Write an essay with a clear thesis and documented sources. [SLO]
- Analyze the rhetorical features of texts. [SLO]

In order for you to achieve these goals, we will work on the following:

- Applying critical thinking and reading strategies (previewing, predicting, questioning, making connections, visualizing, contextualizing, reviewing, evaluating, and reflecting) to comprehend a variety of nonfiction texts in various disciplines.
- Identifying thesis statements, implicit arguments, supporting evidence, and conclusions in a variety of nonfiction texts.
- Arranging main ideas and supporting details into passages, including common academic essay elements (thesis statement, topic sentences, evidence and analysis) to create an effective essay containing introductory, body, and concluding paragraphs that address a central idea.
- Applying the various steps and stages of the writing process to one's own writing and the evaluation of peer writing.
- Synthesizing information from outside sources (attributing quotes, paraphrasing, and differentiating between one's own ideas and those of others).
- Analyzing the presentation of information, patterns of organization, and visual aspects of layout employed by textbooks and other nonfiction texts.
- Analyzing uses of rhetorical development strategies and related transitions in nonfiction texts and effectively incorporate uses of selected rhetorical strategies in one's own writing.
