Influences of the IEA Civic and Citizenship Education Studies Barbara Malak-Minkiewicz, Judith Torney-Purta, 2021-05-26 This open access book identifies the multiple ways that IEA's studies of civic and citizenship education have contributed to national and international educational discourse research policymaking and practice The IEA International Civic and Citizenship Education Study ICCS first conducted in 2009 was followed by a second cycle in 2016 The project was linked to the earlier IEA Civic Education Study CIVED 1999 2000 IEA's ICCS remains the only large scale international study dedicated to formal and informal civic and citizenship education in school It continues to make substantial contributions to understanding the nature of the acquired civic knowledge attitudes and participatory skills It also discusses in depth how a wide range of countries prepare their young people for citizenship in changing political social and economic circumstances The next cycle of ICCS is planned for 2022 In this book more than 20 national representatives and international scholars from Europe Latin America Asia and North America assess how the processes and findings of the 2009 and 2016 cycles of ICCS and CIVED 1999 2000 have been used to improve nations understanding of their students civic knowledge beliefs attitudes current civic related behaviors and intentions for future participation in a comparative context There are also chapters summarizing the secondary analysis of those studies results indicating their usefulness for educational improvement and reflecting on policy issues The analyses and reflections in this book provide timely insight into international educational discourse policy practice and research in an area of education that is becoming increasingly important for many societies

Policies and Practices for Sustainability Transformation in Higher Education Institutions Vasiliki Kioupi, Rosario Michel-Villarreal, Felister Nzuve, Naoya Abe, George Giannopoulos, 2025-08-07 Calls for transforming higher education toward sustainability by academics are not new Recently students both current and prospective have actively voiced their demands for this change They seek an education that equips them to navigate the complexities of sustainability and climate change fostering knowledge and skills for action In response higher education institutions HEIs are formulating strategies to align their mission with sustainability goals However the effectiveness of these strategies along with the underlying policies and practices remains insufficiently studied To address this gap it is crucial to convene academics professional staff and students for discussions on necessary cultural shifts a roadmap and ways to monitor and evaluate this change Such dialogues will lead to improved decision making for transformation to achieve sustainability Students will not only learn about sustainability in their courses but also apply them to their lives within and beyond universities that champion holistic sustainability transformation

Healthcare Management Strategy, Communication, and Development Challenges and Solutions in Developing Countries Emmanuel K. Ngwainmbi, 2014-05-08 Healthcare Management Strategy Communication and Development Challenges and Solutions in Developing Countries analyzes the ways in which health services public health administration and healthcare policies are managed in developing countries and how intercultural intergroup and mass communication practices are weakening those efforts. If developing countries are to reach their development goals, their leaders must have a firm understanding of the impact of infectious diseases on their people and take prompt action to fix socioeconomic issues arising from the problems associated with poor health practices. Drawing on experiences from international health organizations such as the United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA), commissioned in poor countries to assist national governments in improving the wellbeing of their citizens, this volume analyzes maternal and child mortality and the spread of infectious diseases and offers communication strategies for the management of malaria, HIV/AIDS, Polio, tuberculosis, and others in Somalia, Madagascar, Ghana, South Africa, Zimbabwe, Nigeria, the Democratic Republic of Congo, and India.

Nature-Based Solutions in Supporting Sustainable Development Goals Haozhi Pan, Zahra Kalantari, Carla Ferreira, Cong Cong, 2024-11-12. This book catalogs the evidence based on the social, economic, and environmental effectiveness of Nature-based Solutions (NbS) to face environmental challenges and simultaneously provides a better understanding of associated social-ecological interactions. NbS are reframing discussion and policy responses worldwide to environmental challenges. The concept builds on and complements other closely related concepts such as the ecosystem approach, ecosystem services, ecosystem-based adaptation, mitigation, disaster risk reduction, sponge cities, and green/blue infrastructures. The quantification of existing NbS effectiveness, their operationalization, and replication in different environmental settings are presented here in such a way that allows them to be both widely accepted and incorporated in policy development and in practical implementation. Explores the nexus between Nature-based Solutions (NbS) and global SDG, thus leading future research and practice worldwide. Presents novel conceptualizations, pathways, applications, evidence-based cases, and experiential assessments. Offers best practice portfolios for practitioners, city managers, policy makers, civil servants, environmental engineers to guide the practices of NbS towards SDG.

Global Leadership for a Sustainable Future Linyuan Guo-Brennan, Maria Guajardo, Michael Guo-Brennan, Khalid Arar, Dionne Michelle Rosser-Mims, 2025-09-29. Global Leadership for a Sustainable Future facilitates a global conversation about sustainability leadership theory and praxis in public and non-profit sectors where leaders are challenged to manage global crisis, make inclusive public policy, act ethically in global affairs, and adapt to digital disruption.

Big Data Science and Analytics for Smart Sustainable Urbanism Simon Elias Bibri, 2019-05-30. We are living at the dawn of what has been termed the fourth paradigm of science, a scientific revolution that is marked by both the emergence of big data science and analytics and by the increasing adoption of the underlying technologies in scientific and scholarly research practices. Everything about science development or knowledge production is fundamentally changing thanks to the ever-increasing deluge of data. This is the primary fuel of the new age, which powerful computational processes or analytics algorithms are using to generate valuable knowledge for enhanced decision making and deep insights pertaining to a wide variety of practical uses and applications. This book addresses the complex interplay of the scientific technological and social dimensions of the city and what it entails in terms of the systemic implications for smart sustainable urbanism In concrete terms it explores the interdisciplinary and transdisciplinary field of smart sustainable urbanism and the unprecedented paradigmatic shifts and practical advances it is undergoing in light of big data science and analytics This new era of science and technology embodies an unprecedentedly transformative and constitutive power manifested not only in the form of revolutionizing science and transforming knowledge but also in advancing social practices producing new discourses catalyzing major shifts and fostering societal transitions Of particular relevance it is instigating a massive change in the way both smart cities and sustainable cities are studied and understood and in how they are planned designed operated managed and governed in the face of urbanization This relates to what has been dubbed data driven smart sustainable urbanism an emerging approach based on a computational understanding of city systems and processes that reduces urban life to logical and algorithmic rules and procedures while also harnessing urban big data to provide a more holistic and integrated view or synoptic intelligence of the city This is increasingly being directed towards improving advancing and maintaining the contribution of both sustainable cities and smart cities to the goals of sustainable development This timely and multifaceted book is aimed at a broad readership As such it will appeal to urban scientists data scientists urbanists planners engineers designers policymakers philosophers of science and futurists as well as all readers interested in an overview of the pivotal role of big data science and analytics in advancing every academic discipline and social practice concerned with data intensive science and its application particularly in relation to sustainability

Negotiating Resilience with Hard and Soft City Binti Singh,Tania Berger,Manoj Parmar,2023-03-16 This book explores how cities are shaped by the lived experiences of inhabitants and examines the ways they develop strategies to cope with daily and unexpected challenges It argues that migration livelihood and public health challenges result from inadequacies in the hard city urban assets such as land infrastructure and housing and asserts that these challenges and escalating vulnerabilities are best negotiated using the soft city social capital and community networks In so doing the authors criticise a singular knowledge system and argue for a granular nuanced understanding of cities of the interrelations between people in places everyday urbanisms social relationships cultural practices and histories The volume presents perspectives from the Global South and the Global North and engages with city specific cases from Africa India and Europe for a deeper understanding of resilience Part of the Urban Futures series it will be of great interest to students and researchers of urban studies urban planning urban management architecture urban sociology urban design ecology conservation and urban sustainability It will also be useful for urbanists architects urban sociologists city and town planners policy makers and those interested in a deeper understanding of the contemporary and future city

Making Civics Count David E. Campbell,Meira Levinson,Frederick M. Hess,2012-10-01 By nearly every measure Americans are less engaged in their communities and political activity than generations past So write the editors of this volume who survey the current practices and history of citizenship education in the United States They argue that the current period of creative destruction when schools are closing and opening in response to reform mandates is an ideal time to take an in depth look at how successful strategies and programs promote civic education and good citizenship Making Civics Count offers research based insights into what diverse students and teachers know and do as civic actors and proposes a blueprint for civic education for a new generation that is both practical and visionary

The Future of Civic Education Elizabeth Yeager Washington,Keith C. Barton,2024-10-01 Speaking to the need to move beyond traditional formulations this textbook presents radical visions for transforming civic education in the United States Drawing on the experience of educators and scholars including those rooted in feminist queer abolitionist global and race conscious perspectives this work offers new practical ideas for civic education reform Responding to recent political crises many scholars educators and public commentators have called for a rebirth of civic education but these all are grounded in the premise that the goal of civic education should be to teach students about the U S Constitutional system and how to operate within it This book argues that the U S governmental system including the Constitution is infused with racist and anti democratic premises and procedures It asks How can we seek a new path one that is more democratic more equitable and more humane A diverse range of leading civic educators who are willing not just to push the boundaries of civic education but to operate outside its assumptions altogether explore what future possibilities for civic education might look like and how these innovative ideas could be implemented in the classroom Combining theory with practice The Future of Civic Education will be important reading for those studying or researching in social studies methods social studies issues citizenship and civic education It will also be beneficial to social studies teachers at elementary and secondary levels as well as policymakers and non governmental organizations NGOs

The Top Books of the Year Civic Education 2030 1 2013 Answers The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Civic Education 2030 1 2013 Answers : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Pape, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
