

CHAPTER 4: LIMITED PARTNERSHIP

Art. 1843. A limited partnership is one formed by two or more persons under the provisions of the following article, having as members one or more general partners and one or more limited partners. The limited partners as such shall not be bound by the obligations of the partnership.

General partner - liable up to the extent of their separate property.

Limited partner - liable up to the extent of his contribution only.

Characteristic of a limited partnership

1. It is formed by compliance in good faith with the statutory requirements;
2. One or more general partners control the business and are personally liable to creditors;
3. One or more limited partners (also known as special partner/s) contribute to the capital and share in the profits but do not participate in the management of the business;
4. The limited partners are not personally liable for partnership obligations beyond their capital contributions;
5. The limited partners may ask for the return of their capital contributions; and
6. The partnership debts are paid out of the common fund and the separate properties of the general partners.

Art. 1844. Two or more persons desiring to form a limited partnership shall:

- (1) Sign and swear to a certificate, which shall state
 - (a) The name of the partnership, adding thereto the word "Limited";
 - (b) The character of the business;
 - (c) The location of the principal place of business;
 - (d) The name and place of residence of each member, general and limited partners being respectively designated;
 - (e) The term for which the partnership is to exist;
 - (f) The amount of cash and a description of and the agreed value of the other property contributed by each limited partner;
 - (g) The additional contributions, if any, to be made by each limited partner and the times at which or events on the happening of which they shall be made;
 - (h) The time, if agreed upon, when the contribution of each limited partner is to be returned;

- (i) The share of the profits or the other compensation by way of income which each limited partner shall receive by reason of his contribution;
 - (j) The right, if given, of a limited partner to substitute an assignee as contributor in his place, and the terms and conditions of the substitution;
 - (k) The right, if given, of the partners to admit additional limited partners;
 - (l) The right, if given, of one or more of the limited partners to priority over other limited partners, as to contributions or as to compensation by way of income, and the nature of such priority;
 - (m) The right, if given, of the remaining general partner or partners to continue the business on the death, retirement, civil interdiction, insanity or insolvency of a general partner; and
 - (n) The right, if given, of a limited partner to demand and receive property other than cash in return for his contribution.
- (2) File for record the certificate in the Office of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

A limited partnership is formed if there has been substantial compliance in good faith.

Essential Requisites in the Formation of a Limited Partnership

1. The certificate of limited partnership

It must be signed and sworn to. It must contain all the enumerated items in the above-stated article.

2. The certificate of limited partnership must be filed in the Office of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Note: As compared to general partnership which can be verbal, a limited partnership must always be in writing (certificate of limited partnership).

Presumption in favor of a general partnership

A partnership transacting business with third persons is disputably presumed to be a general partnership.

Art. 1845. The contributions of a limited partner may be cash or property, but not services.

Art. 1846. The surname of a limited partner shall not appear in the partnership name unless:

- (1) It is also the surname of a general partner, or
