

BUSINESS STUDIES

1. CREATIVE THINKING AND PROBLEM SOLVING

1.1. What is creative thinking and for what is it used?

- Creative thinking is the process used to come up with new and original ideas.
- Creative thinking is used to develop new products and marketing strategies, improve the quality of goods and services and customer satisfaction, generate alternative solutions, and solve conflict in the workplace and encourage teamwork.

1.2. List the advantages/positives of using creative thinking:

1. Creative thinking creates shorter and more productive meetings.
2. It is better and quicker problem solving and decision making.
3. It is more effective and efficient in terms of planning and management.
4. It creates more innovative ideas that lead to better performance

1.3. Benchmarking

A problem can only be solved once it has been identified. Performance or productivity can be benchmarked against set norms and standards. If the benchmark is not reached there may be a problem within the organisation.

1.4. List the problem-solving steps:

1. Identify the problem and list possible reasons for the problem.
