The Anthem Companion to Maurice Halbwachs Robert Leroux, Jean-Christophe Marcel, 2021-07-06 This book seeks to place Halbwachs in his historical and intellectual context showing that his work was sensitive to the events of his time and that the development of his analysis could be influenced by happenstance The book does this not by summarizing or synthesizing his thinking by the growing literature embodied by many sociologists and historians of social sciences published for the most part in scientific journals that focus on the sociological thought that Halbwachs developed in his writings Then come many studies that emerge from the history of ideas and epistemology these are entirely devoted to a particular facet of Halbwachs work either to place it in its scientific context or to discuss it on the basis of fundamental cognitive issues

Adorno, 2002-05-01 Introduction to Sociology distills decades of distinguished work in sociology by one of this century's most influential thinkers in the areas of social theory philosophy aesthetics and music It consists of a course of seventeen lectures given by Theodor W Adorno in May July 1968 the last lecture series before his death in 1969 Captured by tape recorder which Adorno called the fingerprint of the living mind these lectures present a somewhat different and more accessible Adorno from the one who composed the faultlessly articulated and almost forbiddingly perfect prose of the works published in his lifetime Here we can follow Adorno's thought in the process of formation he spoke from brief notes endowed with the spontaneity and energy of the spoken word The lectures form an ideal introduction to Adorno's work acclimatizing the reader to the greater density of thought and language of his classic texts Delivered at the time of the positivist dispute in sociology Adorno defends the position of the Frankfurt School against criticism from mainstream positivist sociologists He sets out a conception of sociology as a discipline going beyond the compilation and interpretation of empirical facts its truth being inseparable from the essential structure of society itself Adorno sees sociology not as one academic discipline among others but as an over-arching discipline that impinges on all aspects of social life Tracing the history of the discipline and insisting that the historical context is constitutive of sociology itself Adorno addresses a wide range of topics including the purpose of studying sociology the relation of sociology and politics the influence of Saint Simon Comte Durkheim Weber Marx and Freud the contributions of ethnology and anthropology the relationship of method to subject matter the problems of quantitative analysis the fetishization of science and the separation of sociology and social philosophy

Antisemitism in Online Communication Matthias J. Becker, Laura Ascone, Karolina Placzynka, Chloé Vincent, 2024-06-21 The normalisation of hate speech including antisemitic rhetoric poses a significant threat to social cohesion and democracy While global efforts have been made to counter contemporary antisemitism there is an urgent need to understand its online manifestations Hate speech spreads easily across the internet facilitated by anonymity and reinforced by algorithms that favour engaging even if offensive content It often takes coded forms making detection challenging Antisemitism in Online Communication addresses these issues by analysing explicit and implicit antisemitic statements in mainstream online discourse Drawing from disciplines such as corpus linguistics computational linguistics semiotics history and philosophy this edited collection examines over 100 000 user comments from three language communities Contributors explore various facets of online antisemitism including its intersectionality with misogyny and its dissemination through memes and social networks Through case studies they examine the reproduction support and rejection of antisemitic tropes alongside quantitative assessments of comment structures in online discussions Additionally the volume delves into the capabilities of content moderation tools and deep learning models for automated hate speech detection This multidisciplinary approach provides a comprehensive understanding of contemporary antisemitism in digital spaces recognising the importance of addressing its insidious spread from multiple angles

The Black Renaissance in Francophone African and Caribbean Literatures K. Martial Frindéthié, 2014-12-03 This work explores the limits and prospects of Afro Caribbean Francophone writers in reshaping or producing action oriented literature It shows how Francophone literatures have followed a hegemonic discourse that leaves little room for thinking outside of traditional cultural and ideological conventions Part One explores the origins of Afro Caribbean Francophone literature and what the author terms griotism a shared heritage of awareness of biological differences a sense of the black hero as black messiah and black people as chosen and the promise of a common racial history Part Two discusses the formidable grip of griotism on Fanon Mudimbe the champions of Creolity Bernabe Chamoiseau and Confiant and well read African women writers Aminata Sow Fall and Mariama Ba Part Three seeks to subvert the discourse of griotism in order to propose a new autonomy for Francophone African writers
